Explore lush mangrove forests and ancient markets of the towns. Sign up for island boat hopping and take a tour of the fascinating, age-soaked caves around.

The beaches of Surin and Ao Bang Thao are a big yes! Go bar hopping, witness pulsating nightclubs, and hobnob with travellers alike. Rawai offers a more isolated, jungled escape.

Teeming with hawkers and activities, Patong Beach is ideal for adrenaline junkies. Go jet skiing and parasailing, or spend an afternoon ziplining through spell-binding rainforests at the Flying Hanuman Ziplining.

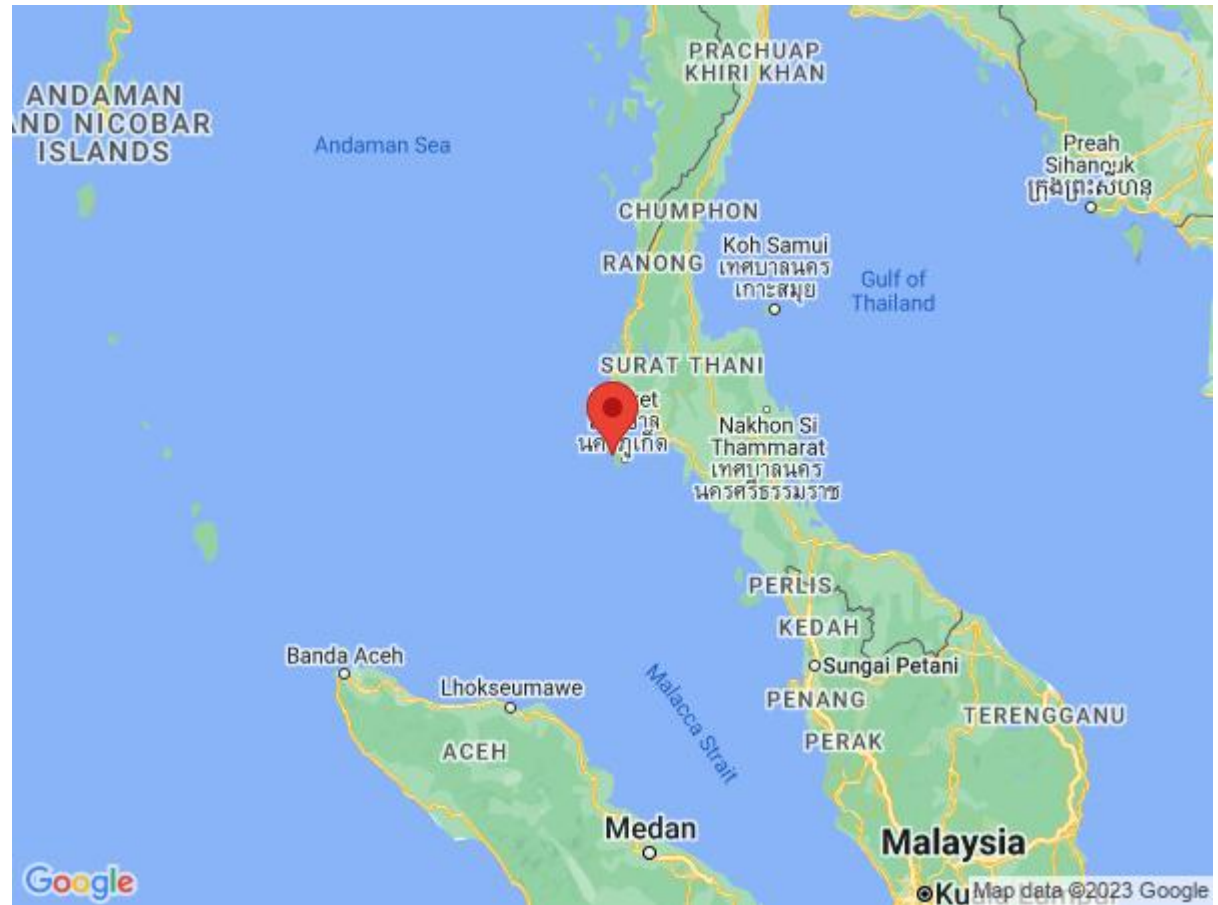

Old Phuket Town offers an enriching experience, taking you through the rich history and culture of the area. Marvel at its well-preserved Chinese and Portuguese architecture that attracts tourists from around the world. Forage through ornate Thai temples, Chinese shrines, and vibrant street murals and paintings. Witness the mammoth 148-foot tall statue of Buddha, also known as Big Buddha. Decorated with Burmese white jade, it sits atop the alluring Nakkerad Hills.

Dig into exquisite flavours at the resort or sample local, homey dishes at restaurants nearby. Influenced by Chinese, Malay and Thai flavours, Phuket is deservedly called Thailand's City of Gastronomy. Start your day with the famous khanom jeen, a breakfast staple of fermented rice noodles and meat curry. Taste Moo hong — braised fatty pork chops, and Oh eaw, which is a refreshing shaved ice dessert.

The nightlife here is truly ravishing! Bangla Road in Patong is a treasure trove of eclectic eateries and throbbing bars. Some of the most popular venues include Hollywood Phuket, Timber Hut and Rockin' Angels.
