Location & Local Information

Your gorgeous new home is above the coastal road in Duce, close to the tiny town of Omis and the Cetina River. The area is wonderful for beach access and swimming, thanks to its many beaches, both sandy and pebble.

You might want to enjoy sunbathing, reading, swimming, snorkelling, or relaxing in the lulling Mediterranean heat, but the area is also wonderful for those seeking some more adventurous fun too.

The area specialises in rafting, zip-lining, canyoning, canoeing, free climbing, hiking, cycling trails and many water sports and water-based activities. So, if slow and sleepy isn't quite your thing, you'll be well catered for. With the Adriatic on your doorstep, the water represents a whole new world for those who seek some adrenaline and excitement.

There's also plenty of history to absorb as you explore the old part of town. From Duce, you may also wish to rent a boat to explore the water and take in the coastal views. The world looks different from the water.

Have you seen the beautiful island of Brac from your balcony? This island is well worth a visit, as its completely unspoilt. It's home to the famous Zlatni Rat beach, a stunning triangle of gorgeous white sands and lush greenery, and a wonderful place to see all forms of marine life, it's also known as the 'golden horn' of the area, and when you see it, you'll understand why.

The monastery of Blaca is a beautiful place to explore, but make sure you bring good walking shoes, sunscreen, and an umbrella to protect yourself from the powerful sun.

Supetar Bay is relatively peaceful and wonderfully photogenic – a great place to enjoy local life and people watch. You might want to experience wine-tasting in Stina, a stunning little winery with a plethora of options for connoisseurs.

We'd also recommend 'dragons cave', so named for the relic of a dragon found inside. This will absolutely capture the imaginations of your party, and you'll also learn a great deal about the history of the local area.

You can't go to Croatia and bypass Split, which is only a half-hour drive away. There's a huge amount to do here, let Split dazzle you with its history, culture, bustle, beaches, promenade, bars and restaurants, and fantastical narrow streets. There's a modern side to Split of course. Swathes of Game of Thrones was filmed here, which makes for some intriguing adventures for those who enjoyed the hit show.

You can also take a trip to the town of Trogir, which is a 45-minute drive away, or visit the Krka waterfalls.

What we love

- Enjoy a traditional Mediterranean breakfast whilst facing the mesmeric Adriatic. Such a lovely and calming way to start the day.
- Beautiful by day and by night, the lit-up pool takes on an atmosphere of its own when night falls. This is a peaceful time to sit out on your terrace and listen to the lapping waves and sounds of the surrounding area.
- We adore how the villa is set up for connection. You can enjoy the jacuzzi whilst the kids play in the pool or sit on your sunbed or out on your terrace, knowing that wherever you are, you can keep your loved ones in sight.
- The views of Brac are something special. There are many great photo opportunities, as well as room to be inspired and to connect with your creativity.

What you should know...

- Pine needles from the neighbouring trees may fall into the pool. Please let the owner know if this poses a problem so they can be removed for you. It's easily achieved with a net!
- This is a very family-oriented property in a safe area, but we'd recommend monitoring children as always, especially as the beach is close by.
- Please do ensure you carry cash as well as card when exploring more remote areas and small towns. A phrase book may also help you out in a pinch, though English is generally well spoken.
