Overview

The stunning Villa Addaia has recently been refurbished and now offers serene, contemporary accommodation for up to ten guests. This wonderful villa is beautifully presented with calm, elegant decor, modern furnishings and a fabulous flow between its spaces. Villa Addaia enjoys a spectacular elevated position on the hillside above the Port of Addaia and the extensive white sandy beach of Arenal d'en Castell. It is a superb spot where you can truly relax, enjoy spectacular hillside and sea vistas and enjoy the company of your friends or family in this very inviting villa.

The Port of Addaia is a tranquil, upmarket residential area along its natural harbour. It offers wonderful holiday amenities and is close to one of the island's most magical beaches. Arenal d'en Castell curves around the sea with its Blue Flag brilliance, offering watersports, loungers, beach bars and restaurants. There are wonderful tennis and golf facilities nearby plus lush surrounding woodland that offers that 'get away from it all' feeling. Menorca's buzzy capital is only twenty minutes drive away, and there are many charming fishing villages to visit, including Na Macaret. Es Mercadal is the base for walks to the island's highest point, Monte Toro, where you will enjoy far-reaching panoramic views of the island.

Villa Addaia is bright and airy throughout, with the sun streaming through its many doors and windows. All in dazzling white, it offers wonderful living spaces and five-bedroom suites, all with contemporary ensuite bathrooms. The villa is comprised of the main house where you will find a gorgeous open plan living area and three bedrooms as well as a pool level annexe with a further two bedrooms and its own kitchen. The main living space is beautifully furnished with modern sofas surrounding a trendy coffee table and sitting close to the villa's television. The sleek, contemporary kitchen is off to one side, again all in white. It boasts the best appliances and a handy breakfast table. Sliding doors open from the living area to an extensive covered terrace where you will find an enormous alfresco dining table and chairs and a gorgeous alfresco lounge area where you can enjoy the beautiful sea views. One of the villa's double bedrooms is located on this level, too, with a sumptuous kingsized bed and sleek, stylish ensuite bathroom. Upstairs you will discover two further bedroom suites, one another double with a double bed and ensuite bathroom and the other a delightful twin with an ensuite shower room. All of the bedrooms enjoy minimalist styling. On the lower pool level, you will find the two remaining bedrooms, one with a beautifully dressed double bed and ensuite shower room and the final bedroom with twin beds and another sleek shower room. The kitchen on this level is very similar to the main one above, all in white and with a dining table and chairs. Doors open from here to a covered terrace with a sofa, a pool terrace, and a swimming pool.

The outside spaces of Villa Addaia are terrific. The whole plot is surrounded by tall trees making it all very secluded and private. The pool is a generous size of 10 m x 4.5 m and is surrounded by loungers and other outdoor furniture.

The sea and hillside views from the terrace are lovely. The upper terrace enjoys even better views and is easily large enough for the whole group. Villa Addaia is perfect for two families as well as for one large group.

Location & Local Information

Villa Addaia enjoys a gorgeous location overlooking the picturesque Port of Addaia. This low-key, laid-back gem is only twenty-five minutes from the airport, so you will be relaxing in your villa in no time. The area is quiet and perfect for those with a love of boats. It is set on the headland between Cala Moli and a very picturesque inlet. Port Addaia is a lovely residential area with authentic restaurants and bars. A delightful scenic coastal footpath winds its way around the whole of Addaia, connecting it with Cala Moli and offering pretty views over Na Macaret.

Close by is the sensational Arenal d'en Castell Beach and also the very natural beach of Arenal de Son Saura, which lies at Son Parc, which is ten minutes away. Here you will also find the island's only golf course, which is set in wooded countryside, complete with a putting green and floodlit driving range. The beach at Es Grau is another idyllic sandy wonder which is part of a nature reserve. To the west, you can head to the delightful beaches of Playa Cavalleria and Binimel. Arenal d'en Castell hugs the cliffs with lush surrounding woodland. Its waterfront is lined with bars and restaurants, which give a lively buzz to the evenings. To the east of the town, you will find some tennis courts.

Es Mercadal is a lovely village in the centre of the island with whitewashed houses, pretty narrow streets, gorgeous pastry shops selling delicious almond macaroons and charming eateries. From here, you can walk to Monte Toro, with its viewing areas and a small cafe. You will just love the views of the island, including the bay at Fornells and the rolling hills of the interior. Na Macaret is another beautiful village, this time a fishing one that offers magical views out to the north coast bays and Port Addaia.

The island's picturesque capital Mahon is twenty minutes from the villa. It is known locally as Mao and is a lively city rich in history, Mediterranean charm and culture. Its 18th-century gin distillery is very interesting, and its narrow streets are lined with many independent shops selling leather, pottery and other crafts, as well as boutiques and restaurants. Close to the Placa Espanya is the pretty 18th-century Carme Church. Next door is the buzzy early morning fish market. Mahon is well known for its classy nightlife and waterfront bars and clubs. Mahon's huge natural harbour is best seen on a boat trip. There are many, including glass-bottomed boats.

Fornells is watersports and restaurant favourite. The village boasts many speciality seafood restaurants, sitting at the entrance of a huge enclosed natural bay. It is excellent for jet skis, waterskiing, windsurfing, kayaking and diving.

Ciutadella, known as 'Vella I Belli' ('Old and Beautiful'), is definitely worth the journey. It is Menorca's second city with a picturesque port and an engaging old quarter lined with grand gold-tinged buildings. The medieval streets are filled with palaces, churches and fortresses as well as wonderful restaurants and bars. Placa d'es Born is one of the most picturesque squares in Ciutadella. It is a delight to explore. Waterside dining can be found at the port. If you get there early enough, you can watch the fishermen bringing in the local catch of the day. You can also catch a ferry from here to Alcudia in Mallorca. Ciutadella celebrates its local festival on 23 and 24 June each year, and the party is one of the most spectacular festivals in Menorca.
