Location & Local Information

Casa del Limonero is located on the Costa Blanca on the southeast coast of Spain. Enjoying over 60 miles of sand, stunning blue flag beaches and enjoying more sunny days than anywhere else in Spain, this is one of the most popular tourist destinations in Spain. Away from the high-rise buildings and busy large resorts, you can enjoy a slower pace at the photogenic resort of Javea.

Javea is one of the finest towns on the whole of the Costa Blanca, with lots of charm and retaining a 'Spanish' feel. The pretty old town has cobbled narrow streets lined with houses and shops built with original Tosca sandstone and is dominated by the gothic 15th-century church of San Bartolome. Beside the church is a beautiful building where you can find an indoor daily market selling local fresh produce. The Old town is also home to a local market each Thursday, the perfect spot to pick up trinkets and presents for home.

The Port of Javea is lively and charming. Whitewashed houses surround the bay, and there are plenty of good shops, bars and cafes to wander to. Locals and tourists alike enjoy excellent bay-side restaurants that serve fantastic seafood and give you a chance to sit back and people-watch.

The closest beach to the property is La Platja de la Grava which is mostly pebble and very popular amongst locals for an early morning swim. Besides enjoying plenty of amenities and water sports, it is also the location for multiple local festivities. Another nearby stone beach is Playa de Muntanyar. Nicknamed the 'Dawn of Spain', this offers some of the best views in the whole of Javea and is particularly lovely at sunrise.

Playa del Arenal is the town's main beach. A large and wide sandy blue flag beach in a sheltered bay where the waters are shallow and calm. Surrounded by shops, bars and restaurants, it's wonderful to stroll along the promenade on balmy evenings. There are plenty of stalls selling arts and crafts, and if you are looking for lively nightlife, there are live music bars and clubs.

A great way to explore the area is to find the Miradors of Javea. These are 14 designated viewpoints showing the best views of Javea. The Miradors are clearly signposted and begin at Cap San Antonio, where there is a lighthouse. Golfers are well catered for with the 9-hole Javea Golf Club just outside of the town. There are several golf courses along the Costa Blanca, including two designed by Seve Ballesteros.
