Location & Local Information

Villa Etincelle is located in south-eastern Corsica, 15km north of Porto Vecchio, within walking distance to the coast and a short drive from some of Corsica's most beautiful beaches.

In the heights of a residential area around 3km south of Plage de Pinarellu, there are some stunning walking trails in this area and you can also stroll down to a little bay, linked to a campsite, which is partly naturist. Restaurants can be reached within a short drive – in the summer pre-book a table at one of the beachside establishments at Plage de Pinarellu or the equally gorgeous Plage de Saint Cyprien, about a 5km drive away. Both beaches also offer a great range of seasonal watersports.

Porto Vecchio (15km) is a charming harbourside town, especially popular in the summer months, with an old quarter of narrow lanes filled with restaurants and shops as well as an impressive marina. Two further iconic beaches of Corsica, Palombaggia and Santa Giulia, are just south of the town around 25km away.

Further south, Bonifacio (44km) is a fantastic day out, a wonderful town with a bustling citadel above dramatic limestone cliffs, a marina with inviting restaurants and bars, some glorious beaches and coastal walking opportunities nearby as well as boat trips heading out to the remote Lavezzi Islands.

It's not just southern Corsica's beaches that will take your breath away, the rugged interiors of the island are also magnificent. Admire the island's natural beauty as you hike through the Forêt de l'Ospédale, discover all sorts of outdoor adventures from canyoning to quad-biking, come across idyllic rivers and rock pools and be amazed by the incredible landscapes of the Col de Bavella.
