Location & Local Information

Villa Ixia is located within the village of Ixia on the islands of Rhodes, with picturesque beaches, lively bars, and delicious restaurants just a short walk away, all that is left to do is turn up and relax! The beach can be reached within a 20-minute walk, or speedy drive. The town has all the conveniences you could need with supermarkets, pharmacies, bars, restaurants, and car rentals all within the local area.

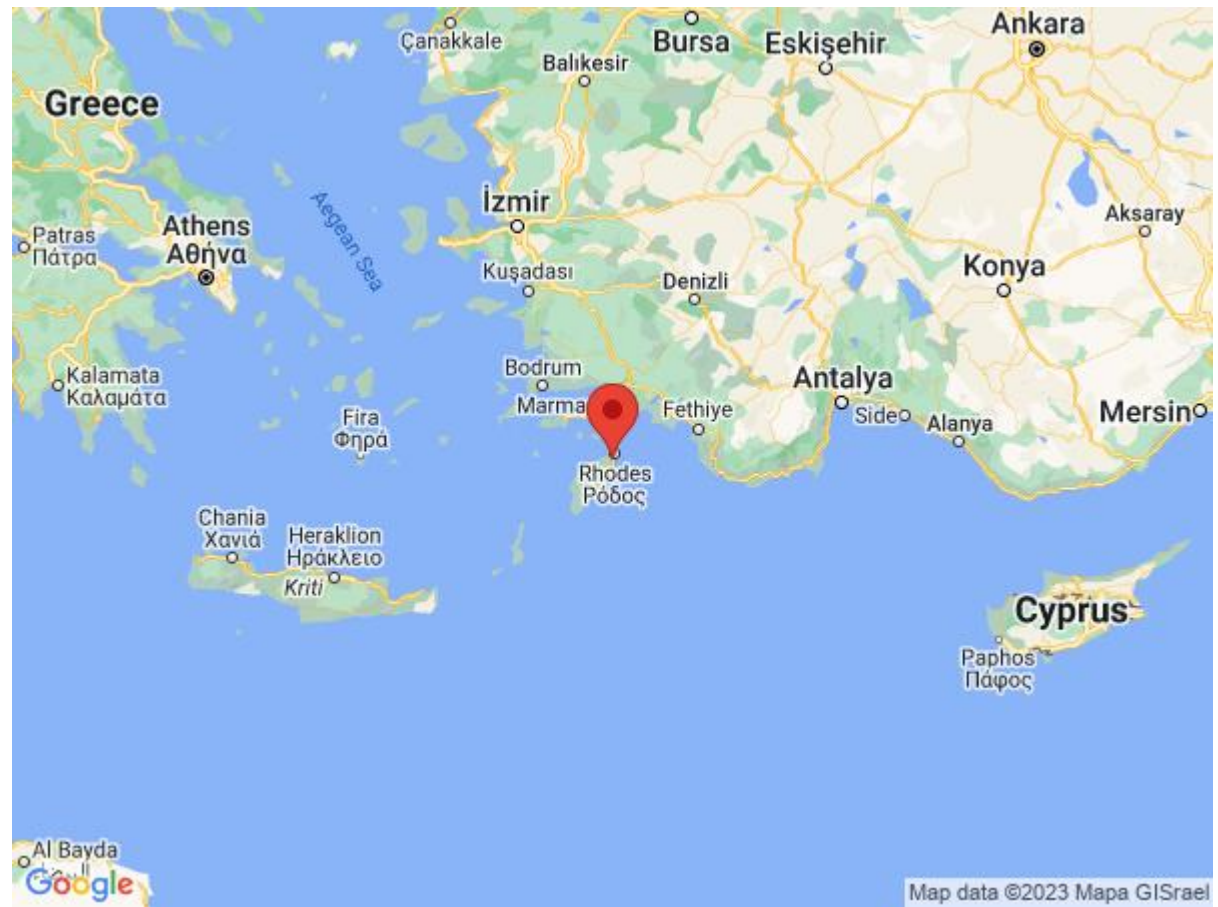

When you desire a little more buzz and liveliness, the capital, Rhodes is just a twenty-minute drive away. The medieval Old Town offers a maze of beautiful streets, filled with restaurants, bars, and shops, all slotted in amongst the charm and history of the city. One of the top sites, is the Palace of the Grand Masters. Visitors can explore this mighty fortress and its rich history. Within the complex, you will find the Rhodes' Archaeological Museum, as well as various exhibitions and performances that are hosted through the year. Mandraki Port is fantastic to walk around, and you can visit Rhodes Aquarium or Elli Beach, both within easy walking distance of the town. Rhodes city is also the centre of the island's nightlife. The huge casino stays open late into the night, and there's clubbing and lively bars on Orfanidou Street and, in the Old Town, Miltiadou Street.

A trip to the island would not be complete without exploring the great outdoors. There are endless surprises and delights in both the beaches and countryside. The Valley of the Butterflies is one of the best-loved attractions on the island, though the best time to visit is in the summer months. The Epta Piges (Seven Springs) are another highlight, with peaceful wooded areas, a lake, and impressive waterfalls.

The local pebble beach is great for a day relaxing to the sounds of the sea, whilst sunbathing on the shore. For snorkelling you can take boat trips around the island, or head to Anthony Quinn Bay, a spot just south of Faliraki. Prasonisi Beach is a favourite for water sports, as well as a great option for surfers and kite-surfers. For a quieter day at the beach, Agathi and St Paul's Bay in Lindos are great choices.
