

Villa Paralos II

Region: Rhodes Sleeps: 6 - 7

Overview

Villa Paralos II is a beautifully designed, inside and out. With contemporary architecture, it is nestled just 550 metres from the beautiful Glystra Beach, 600 metres from Kokkinoglia Beach and only fourteen minutes' walk from the breathtaking Galuni Beach. The villa is ideal for both families and groups of friends, offering three very generous sized bedrooms, each with either terrace or balcony access. If you have seven guests, you are also welcome to use the living room for one guest. The living space is open plan in design, very smart and elegant. This wonderful villa comes with a spectacular terrace with shaded alfresco dining and lounging, an outstanding built-in barbecue, striking architectural planting and a superb swimming pool.

Glystra, Kiotari and Lardos offer wonderful holiday amenities to guests staying at the villa. Lindos and its famous Acropolis, the most important archaeological site on Rhodes, is only a fifteen minute drive away. Lindos also boasts a sensational beach. The Old Town of Rhodes is roughly an hour away, a fabulous UNESCO World Heritage site with plenty of charm, ancient buildings and a fantastic dining scene. The nearest beach, Glystra, enjoys a relaxed setting, beautiful fine sand stretching 200 metres and calm, turquoise, shallow water making it perfect for families. There are plenty of sun loungers, parasols and a helpful cafe. Kiotari offers sandy Blue Flag brilliance along with a great selection of watersports, traditional tavernas and chilled out bars. Lardos gives you a big helping of traditional Greek island life with its charming, old-fashioned square brimming with cypress trees, a church and an Italian fountain. Nearby, there is a monastery and the remains of a Byzantine castle, all surrounded by winding rural paths and scenic olive groves.

Villa Paralos II enjoys a fabulous open plan living space. Its chef's dream of a kitchen enjoys top-of-the-range appliances, a wonderfully sociable island with trendy stools so that guests can keep the chef in your group and unique lighting. Guests can relax on comfy modern sofas in the living area. Both areas enjoy floor-to-ceiling glass doors that down the spaces in natural light and offer access to the extensive terrace.

One of the villa's bedrooms is also located on the ground floor, perfect for guests with any mobility issues. It is a delightful double with a beautifully dressed double bed and access to the terrace. This serene bedroom boasts an exquisite ensuite bathroom which enjoys a giant walk-in shower and beautiful tiling.

The final two bedrooms are found on the first floor along with a brilliantly designed family bathroom. Both bedrooms boast private furnished balconies where you can enjoy your morning cup of coffee or a late night tippie while captivated by the magical views.

The terrace is a fantastic entertainment space. Two beautiful, trendy sail canopies offer shade over the alfresco dining and lounge areas. Your barbecue masters will enjoy using the very large built-in barbecue. The terrace is adorned by colourful plant pots and planting troughs as well as a selection of towering palms. The pool, surrounded by luxury loungers, umbrellas and bean bags, is absolutely fabulous.

Location & Local Information

Villa Paralos II enjoys a splendid location, within minutes of a selection of excellent beaches including Kiotari, Glystra and Kokkinogia. The beaches are all super-sized sandy wonders, some with watersports and all with beach bars or a cafe.

Within roughly ten minutes' drive, you can visit the medieval castle ruins at Asklipion as well as its Byzantine church and folklore museum. Gennadi boasts an excellent selection of whitewashed shops, bars and restaurants lining its narrow alleyways. Gennadi is very friendly and offers an excellent sand and pebble beach. You will find a mix of contemporary, modern villas set against old fashioned Greek tavernas.

The whitewashed town of Lindos is overlooked by its famous hilltop Acropolis. The ruins tell the story of the island's past with remains from the Roman era, an ancient Greek temple and a castle built by the medieval knights of St John. Lindos is very pretty and full of unique jewellery and handicraft shops, boutiques, vibrant bars and wonderful restaurants. You can even hitch a ride to the top on the back of a donkey! With a beautiful beach, Lindos really is a coastal gem.

Rhodes Town sits at the far north with its wonderful churches left by the Byzantines and a gorgeous harbour that was one the site of the Colossus of Rhodes, one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. You will discover an intricate warren of busy little commercial streets and delightful, quiet alleys. It is the oldest inhabited medieval town in Europe. The Old Town is full of Byzantine and Gothic churches, medieval buildings, mosques, traditional fountains, oriental motifs and many boutique shops and restaurants. The highlights of the Old Town are the Palace of the Grand Master, the Archaeological Museum housed in the Gothic building of the Great Hospital of the Knights, The Street of the Knights and some of the mosques.

Twenty minutes south of Rhodes Town on the the east coast, Koskinou is famous for its beautifully painted, colourful houses and its summer festival on 17 July celebrating the name day of St Marina with music and dancing. Visitors enjoy delicious traditional cuisine in the local tavernas as well as yummy local wines. Koskinou is an exciting labyrinth of tiny, winding, cobblestone streets with fabulous splashes of red, blue, yellow, green, pink and turquoise. You feel so alive and happy meandering through the lanes. The facades, doors and windows of the 17th and 18th century neoclassical houses are bright and cheerful, many with carved or etched designs. Small patios and gardens complete the pretty picture. You won't be able to resist peeking in! Many of the whitewashed squares are draped in colourful bougainvillea and other flowers. Kosinou enjoys an interesting history since the 4th century AD.

Its 13th century medieval castle and the chapels built in the 4th century are worth visiting.

Another Rhodes wonder, Kallithea, is situated against a setting of world famous spa baths and stunning beaches on the eastern coast of Rhodes. Its gorgeous inlets and coves are sprinkled with sculptured rocks and caves. Diving and snorkeling are very popular as well as the other watersports on offer. The Kallithea Spa was built in 1920 by the Italians. Following its restoration, the spa is a top sight. Many guests visit the area for its crystal clear azure waters and magical scenery.

Faliraki Beach is the most popular and most highly organised beach in Rhodes. It is more than 5km wide and offers fine golden sand, trendy beach bars, sun loungers and parasols, just about every watersport imaginable and even bungee jumping. The nightlife is incredible with fabulous restaurants, bars and nightclubs. The Faliraki Water Park is fantastic fun and a very popular excursion for families.
