Overview

Families or friends looking for a wonderful chocolate-box chalet in the charming resort of La Tania do not need to look further than Chalet Hawthorn. This fantastic, characterful chalet was constructed with reclaimed timbers taken from an old Russian farmhouse. The craftsmanship is just magical and will have you admiring it all week long! The chalet just makes you want to smile. You will immediately be looking forward to cosy nights in front of the log burner!

The chalet has the added benefits of a hot tub on the deck and good skiers being able to ski off-piste to the front door through the forest. What a way to end the day! Even beginners only need to walk two hundred metres to the piste and the lift. The chalet enjoys a brilliant location which is only a five-minute walk from the centre of the village. The chalet offers four beautiful bedroom suites and enjoys upside-down living with three of the bedrooms on the ground floor and the living spaces and one bedroom upstairs. Sitting in a winter wonderland, Chalet Hawthorn is nestled within the forest of La Tania, moments from the piste and surrounded by snow and glorious panoramic views. It is a fabulous choice for large families or a group of friends. The chalet is semi-detached with our Chalet Elm which sleeps ten guests and there is a connecting door that can be opened so that large groups can enjoy a ski holiday together.

La Tania is a picture postcard ski village which sits between Courchevel and Meribel with excellent access to the whole of the Three Valleys ski area. It is a small, welcoming village with a good range of bars, restaurants, shops, ski schools and kindergartens but at the same time its size makes it utterly charming and you are never far from the slopes or the village amenities. The resort was built for the 1992 Winter Olympics, enjoying a traffic-free centre which is especially popular with families. A fast gondola lift takes you to the Three Valleys ski area where you can enjoy 600kms of piste, one hundred and eighty three blue and green runs, one hundred and nineteen red runs, thirty three black runs and the most amazing snow-capped scenery.

As well as downhill skiing and snowboarding, La Tania offers some other wonderful, fun activities including sledging, night skiing, hiking, snowshoeing, cross-country skiing and paragliding. Out of the ski season, visitors enjoy mountain biking, trekking, tennis, clay pigeon shooting, swimming and paragliding. Courchevel and Meribel Centre are only a ten minute drive away, both brilliant for nightlife and other entertainment.

As well as Chalet Elm next door, there are two other chalets along the same road as Chalet Hawthorn that Oliver's Travels also feature. If you are a very large group, you might like to take a peak at Chalet Akbash and Chalet Cedar or even Chalet Ash which is also close by but not on the same road.

You will discover three of your four bedrooms on the ground floor of Chalet Hawthorn, all twins with their own smart shower room. They are gorgeous nests, all in wood and with crisp cottons and cosy duvets on the beds plus a colour splash from the scatter cushions. You will find dressing gowns on the beds too to save you having to take them. Also on the ground floor is a handy boot room with heated boot driers so that you are comfortable as you head out for the slopes.

The remaining twin bedroom is on the first floor, another wooden clad wonder with an en-suite bathroom. When you walk into the open plan living space you will be truly delighted by the warm ambience and gorgeous finish. Under an immensely characterful wooden beamed ceiling at all different angles, you can relax on beautiful carved sofas and chairs watching a movie streamed using the Wi-Fi and enjoying the flames and warmth of the log burning stove. It is a perfect spot for pre-dinner drinks or family games. At the far end, you will dine in style on hearty breakfasts, afternoon teas and delicious evening meals. Doors open to a balcony and stunning snow capped trees and slopes.

Chalet Hawthorn also boasts a hot tub on the deck, a wonderful treat when you return from the slopes.
