Location & Local Information

From water sports to a simple beach day out, this Balearic coastline offers so much to enjoy throughout the day, not to mention the world-famous club nights hosted in the beach bars, your most local of which, the Nikki Beach club, is one of the best in the world! You're also in a fabulous location for visiting Ibiza city, just 20 minutes away, with its fashionable and elegant bars, restaurants and incredible retail therapy offerings!

Villa Elefante also enjoys a delightful location close to Santa Eulalia, a fabulous resort with wonderful amenities. Santa Eulalia's pretty promenade runs the whole length of the beach and is adorned with miniature gardens, towering palm trees and a large fountain. At one end, you will discover Mariner's Beach, where the only river in the whole of the Balearics runs into the sea. You can take a blissful river meander to the Roman bridge and to the little beach of Calo de S'Alga. There are two main streets in the town which are sprinkled with gorgeous boutiques, art galleries and cosy cafes and restaurants where you can watch the world go by. Musicians frequently play in the streets, and you can buy some souvenirs from the craft stalls. The atmosphere is wonderful. The yacht marina is very stylish and elegant, brimming with gorgeous floating palaces of your dreams. Small ferry boats take you to the nearby beaches, the colourful hippy market at Es Cana and to the amazing sister island of Formentera. There are some amazing countryside restaurants within easy reach, including Can Muson de sa Vila and Bambuddha, a temple for fine dining.
