

Maison Bardot

Region: French Riviera (Cote D'Azur) Sleeps: 20

Overview

Maison Bardot is all about luxury living in Saint Tropez with glorious views from its vast terraces and gardens down to the glistening Mediterranean.

Part of an exclusive domaine only 2km from the allure of Saint Tropez and the beach clubs of Plage de Tahiti, be wowed by the villa's beautifully landscaped gardens with works of art standing alongside ancient olive trees, backed by majestic pines so typical of the south of France. The 20m long swimming pool is divine whilst the shaded poolside terrace is perfect for evening aperitifs or lingering al-fresco meals into the night.

Inside, the sense of opulence continues across the elegant lounge and dining space, the striking kitchen, fitness room and stunning bedrooms, each one featuring its own TV and en suite bathroom. On the upper floor, the master bedroom with the wonderful sea view is especially impressive whilst seven further doubles and a dorm-style children's room all offer attractive accommodation for up to 20 guests. The option to hire a chef in July and August as well as daily housekeeping are further luxurious additions to this splendid abode.

A short drive brings you to the heart of Saint Tropez where you can soak up the charm of this former fishing village, visit the bustling Provençal market at Place des Lices, potter around the medieval lanes and dine out in high-end restaurants. Then there's the glamour of Plage de Pampelonne and its beach clubs where you can follow the footsteps of famous stars of past and present.

If you seek the beauty and authenticity of the French Riviera, then follow the winding roads towards the bay of La Croix Valmer where you will find calm sandy shores, incredible coastal walking trails, beachside restaurants and vineyards producing exceptional Côtes de Provence wines.

Of course, you are also well positioned for visiting idyllic hilltop villages such as Grimaud, Ramatuelle and Gassin or venturing further afield towards the incredible landscapes of the Maures Massif and so many exquisite gems of the Côte d'Azur hinterland.

Location & Local Information

In the French Riviera, Maison Bardot is part of an exclusive domaine less than 2km from the heart of Saint Tropez, in the Var department of southern France.

Experience the charm of Saint Tropez as you explore its winding medieval lanes, looking out for boutiques, café terraces and high-end restaurants and soaking up the bustling ambience of the markets at Place des Lices. Then there's the traditional pastel-coloured fishermen cottages contrasting the glamour of the marina with its luxurious yachts.

You are also close to the beachside restaurants at Plage de Tahiti (2km) or continue south towards the famous beach clubs at Plage de Pampelonne, ten minutes away by car, for sandy shores, summer watersports and exclusive spots such as Club 55 and Nikki Beach.

There is so much more of the glistening Côte d'Azur to discover including the wilder coast around La Croix Valmer, where you will find some wonderful walking trails passing diverse flora and fauna as well as gorgeous bays, idyllic scenery and vineyards producing some excellent Côtes de Provence wines.

Spend time visiting the picture-perfect hilltop villages of this region such as flower-filled Grimaud, home to several fantastic restaurants and a charming antique market every Sunday. Appreciate stunning French Riviera views from other villages including Gassin and Ramatuelle or head further inland to experience the natural beauty of the Maures Massif, a paradise for walkers and nature lovers.

Cycling is also very popular with many marked trails whilst horse-riding, go-karting, paint-balling and other outdoor adventures can be found across the region. Golf lovers can play a round at Golf Club Saint-Tropez (10km), taking in the spectacular scenery as you tee off, or perhaps you would rather admire the Côte d'Azur by boat – a number of excursions depart from Saint Tropez's port.
