Whilst the beach is not on your doorstep; it can be reached in minutes. In one direction you can visit the beaches of Comporta, Pego, Carvalhal and Troia. The other way is you can visit the beaches of Melides, Santo Andre, Porto Covo and Sines.

Comporta is a charming village located at the base of the Troia peninsula and at the side of the Sado estuary. The history of the village goes back to the Roman Empire, and Comporta is still a hive of agricultural production with rice fields and vineyards producing some fine white, red and rose wines. For golf lovers, Comporta is a dream; the fantastic Comporta Dunes course was designed by David McLay Kidd within a stunning terrain of pine forest and sand dunes close to Pego beach. Troia championship golf course is also nearby, designed by the famous golf architect Robert Trent Jones. If golf isn't your thing, there are plenty of other activities and pursuits that you can involve with, including horse riding, fishing, hunting, sailing, bird watching and cycling. Comporta beach is just a ten-minute walk from Comporta village, so you can combine the two for a fabulous day out with your family and friends.

Of course, being this close to the vibrant, cosmopolitan city of Lisbon, a day trip is a must for your holiday. A foodie haven, there are so many options, from fine-dining restaurants to the renowned Time Out Market and the incredible Portuguese custard tarts.
