Location & Local Information

Casa Natural is close to Ibiza Town, the island's capital, which is known for its white sandy beaches, exciting attractions and lively and vibrant nightlife. This town, considered one of the oldest in Europe, has something for everyone: legendary nightclubs, world-class restaurants and a fantastic selection of bars. Visitors who love to shop until they drop won't be disappointed as the town is home to a variety of boutiques and high-end fashion stores, as well as plenty of places to pick up some unique novelties and souvenirs.

Ibiza Town draws a very international crowd, and in the summer months, you may even spot a few celebs - but the region isn't just a party town. Visitors here come for the art galleries and museums just as much as they do the clubs, and with so many to choose from, you'll find plenty on offer if you want to indulge in a bit of history and culture. Much of the architecture and layout here has remained untouched since the 1600s, and the town is still home to the Catalan Castle, built in 1235, and the Gothic cathedral that boasts incredible coastline views. After soaking up the amazing historical sights, take a stroll through Ibiza Town's back streets, where you'll get to witness colourful parades and street performers, before heading down to the port and seeing how the other half live with some of the most extensive and expensive yachts in the world on show.

Eating out could not be more straightforward in Ibiza Town, with restaurants and eateries offering cuisines from all over the world, from traditional Spanish tapas and Asian fusion to familiar chains such as Hard Rock Cafe, McDonalds and Burger King. As night falls, Ibiza Town comes into its own, with hundreds of independent, quirky and lively bars offering beers, wines and cocktails, and most showcasing live entertainment. If clubbing is your thing, you'll be in your element here as the town is home to Pacha - the original super club and one of the biggest and most famous on the island. Here you can enjoy a variety of lively themed nights that will take you through into the morning and beyond!

- Casa Natural has a rustic and homely feel, so perhaps it wouldn't suit those looking for ultra-modern accommodation
- There is a highchair and cot available for use - handy for the youngest guests!
