Location & Local Information

Villa Bibo is located near the island's capital, Ibiza town, one of the oldest towns in Europe and an area synonymous with hedonistic clubs, fine dining, exciting bars, and gorgeous white sandy beaches.

Despite the town's reputation as a clubber's paradise, visitors are just as likely to come here for the town's art galleries and museums as they are to party, and with so many to choose from, you'll find plenty on offer if you want to indulge in a little history and culture. Much of the architecture and layout here has remained untouched since the 1600s, and the town is still home to the Catalan Castle, which was built in 1235, as well as the Gothic cathedral that boasts incredible coastline views. After soaking up the amazing historical sights, take a stroll through Ibiza Town's back streets, where you'll get to witness colourful parades and street performers, before heading down to the port and seeing how the other half live with some of the biggest and most expensive yachts in the world on show.

If you and your family love to shop until you drop, you won't be disappointed with what the town has to offer in the way of retail opportunities, as Ibiza Town is home to a variety of boutiques and high-end fashion stores, as well as plenty of places to pick up some unique novelties and souvenirs.

Eating out could not be simpler while in Ibiza Town, with restaurants and eateries offering cuisines from all over the world, from traditional Spanish tapas and Asian fusion to familiar chains such as Hard Rock Cafe, McDonalds and Burger King. As night falls, Ibiza Town really comes into its own, with hundreds of independent, quirky and lively bars offering beers, wines and cocktails, and most showcasing live entertainment. If clubbing is your thing, you'll be in your element here as the town is home to Pacha - the original super club and one of the biggest and most famous on the island. Here you can enjoy a variety of lively themed nights that will take you through into the morning and beyond!
