

Afintun Estate

Region: Hampshire Sleeps: 44

Overview

Step into royal life at the beautiful, family owned Afintun estate. Whether it is a wedding or a private event, the tradition of hosting lavish parties at the estate has endured through the centuries. Once a prestigious party palace at the heart of the Royal Court, the grace and grandeur of the architecture and interiors is outstanding and is sure to take yours and your guest's breath away!

Afintun Estate is located just east of Winchester, with 150 acres of private parkland stretching along the shores of the river Itchen. The romantic and ethereal country house dates back as early as 1661 and is recorded in the Domesday Book. Perched elegantly on the banks of the river Itchen, it was a Priory for the Monks of Saint Swithun, until King Henry VIII took the estate for the Tudors and Royal Courtiers. It was then owned by the Crown and was enjoyed by the Royal Court for the next 300 years.

From the naturally lit, resplendent ballroom, to the homely and inviting King Charles Hall, there are spaces for every occasion. In the Orangery, living walls are bursting with jasmine, lemons and lime trees, whilst the books and history of the library creates a more intimate, atmospheric space for dancing.

On top of these fabulous entertaining spaces, Afintun offers twenty beautiful bedrooms. Set throughout a series of divine residential suites, every room offers its own unique charm, with stunning views across the vibrant surrounding parkland. Every corner you turn within this remarkable building you will find a new delight, from elegant kitchens, to indulgent four poster beds and luxurious bathrooms.

The grounds are a photographer's and a holidaymaker's dream. With a Rolls Royce Silver and a Bentley Continental convertible, you can make a special day even more memorable, driving around the gorgeous parkland in style. With a total capacity of 200 guests for a wedding experience, guest lists do not need to be cut down, you can invite everyone you both love and care about to share your special day with you.

Whether it is a wedding or a private event, having the exclusive use of the estate and partaking in the historic tradition of parties here guarantees a day you will never forget!
