

Villa Artigue

Region: Aquitaine Sleeps: 16

Overview

Located in the heart of the wine-growing region of Saint-Émilion, Villa Artigue offers the epitome of style and elegance, with contemporary interiors that pay homage to the charm and character of the buildings history. Surrounded by gardens and an immaculate swimming pool, there is a warm and welcoming atmosphere from the inside out that makes a stay here feel special.

From the moment you arrive, there is an ease and charm to the villa that makes it effortless to settle in. A home away from home, with a few extra flourishes you can enjoy all the comforts of a private holiday home, with all the extras you might expect from a hotel. The villa concierge is at your disposal, perfect for organising winery tours, home chefs, massages and tastings, so you can focus on what is most important, time together with your loved ones.

From the velvet haute couture furniture to the feature light fittings and carefully designed rooms, every corner of Villa Artigue could have been taken from a design magazine. There is a laid-back sense of grandeur that stems from the character features and extends through the contemporary fixtures and fittings. From the modern kitchen to the spacious living room and impressive dining area, you can spread out and relax, finding your own private corner of this beautiful home. There is also plenty of space to come together as a group, enjoying the sounds of conversation and laughter resonating around the rooms. There is also a games room with table football and an adjoining laundry room for your convenience.

The sleeping areas are located on the first floor, with four beautifully designed bedrooms. The master suite has its own special atmosphere, with one-of-a-kind furniture, fine materials, and a custom headboard. There are two further double bedrooms that both have their own unique whims, as well as a dormitory bedroom, well suited to children.

The villa grounds are just as impressive as the interiors. Well-maintained flower beds, a luscious lawn and a beautiful terrace all wrap around the fantastic private swimming pool and jacuzzi. Furnished with designer furniture, a barbecue and deckchairs, there is space to live and dine al-fresco, enjoying every moment out in French sunshine. With something for everyone, this stylish, remarkable villa is the perfect choice for a stay in Saint-Émilion.

Location & Local Information

Villa Artigue is located in the heart of the wine-growing region of Saint-Émilion in Gironde. Close to many of the region's main tourist attractions, this charming villa offers a brilliant base for exploring the cultural and historical heritage of the area. With delicious gastronomy, world-class vineyards, ocean beaches and towns steeped in history, this area offers more than you could imagine, with endless things to see and do during your stay.

Just a short drive from the villa itself, is a wine estate called Domaine de la Grave, owned by the same family as Villa Artigue since 1876. You can explore the wine and Cooperage Museum, eat some cheese and fresh bread in the picnic area, and partake in fun tasting activities and oenological discoveries.

A UNESCO World Heritage Site, Saint-Émilion is just a ten-minute drive from the villa and is a must visit during your stay. This quaint, mediaeval village hosts nearly a million visitors a year, with exceptional architecture, gastronomy and underground galleries to explore.

One of the main draws of this vibrant area has always been the wine. The renowned Médoc wine route is well worth exploring, starting in the vineyards of Bordeaux and travelling as far as Pointe de Grave. The wealth of knowledge and quality of grapes is remarkable and leaves every visitor feeling like a wine connoisseur.

For something special, there is a nearby aerodrome which organise aerial tours over the wineries, coastline, and historic towns. From a bird's eye view you can spot renowned châteaux, and picturesque scenery, giving the villa a sense of place in this beautiful landscape.

Saint-Émilion is not the only UNESCO World Heritage Site in the area, with the city of Bordeaux nearby as well. Overflowing with historic sites, monuments, and must-see spots, you can easily spend a day or two exploring the rich history of the city. La Cité du Vin and the vibrant restaurant scene are well worth visiting, making memories in this remarkable place.

A day at the beach never goes amiss, and Arcachon Bay is only an hour and a half from the villa. Woodland dunes and the blue azure of the sea, make this beautiful bay a lovely spot for some sunbathing and fun in the sand.

What we love

- You can arrange a wine tasting at the villa, learning about the aromas and flavours of regional wines, or maybe even learning to make your own wine!
- Located in the heart of the wine-growing region of Saint-Émilion, this is a fantastic location for exploring the delights of the South of France.
- Beautifully converted, the villa offers bespoke interiors, designer furniture and a semi-professional kitchen.

What you should know...

- While this property sleeps up to 16 guests, please note that 2 guests will be sleeping on a double sofa bed in the fifth bedroom/office room which adjoins the master bedroom.
- There is a concierge on hand throughout your stay, who can even arrange your outings and holiday activities.
- There is an optional in-home catering service, providing gourmet menus to a cold buffet. Request a chef to take care of the food, so you can relax even more!
- If you would like a massage or treatment during your stay, then it can be arranged for a team of talented masseuses to attend the villa.
