

Villa Moonlight

Region: Krk Sleeps: 8

Overview

Perched cosily on the beautiful island of Krk in Croatia, Villa Moonlight is a three-bedroom family-friendly home for eight.

Like your own little hideout in paradise, it's set in the serene village of Županje — yet at a striking distance from a gamut of activities. Go on leisurely walks, explore pristine beaches and spend hours foraging nearby trails. Grab e-bikes from inside the home for a fun time with loved ones.

Surrounded by teeming foliage, the villa welcomes you with sprawling open decks and manicured lawns. A sparkling heated pool overlooks Mediterranean landscapes, while day chairs and a puffy canopy bed make for a relaxing siesta. Spend peaceful hours outdoors and savour the evening sun in the tropical garden.

A unique feature of the villa is its sleek, alfresco kitchen. Accessible from the pool, it's kitted with wooden countertops and modern cabinetry. Indulge in an afternoon of family cooking and tuck into delightful meals. For an especially memorable time, fire up a hearty BBQ.

The interiors are equally impressive. Earthy, cobble-stoned walls and monochromatic palettes blend tastefully with soothing white-washed décor. The villa offers a heady mix of calming, naturalistic fixtures with the amenities of a luxury retreat.

The living area is drenched in warm, natural light, with floor-to-ceiling sliders that open onto the breezy patio. Stretch out on the comfy sofa and unwind before the TV.

While the 4-seater indoor table is ideal for intimate gatherings, there's an additional indoor-outdoor dining space that adds charm. Elegant wooden tables, billowing curtains and scenic garden views radiate a sense of tranquillity.

All bedrooms sleep two guests, boasting a homey atmosphere. Each features king-size beds and a TV. Spend days luxuriating indoors or indulge in a host of outdoorsy activities. Villa Moonlight promises an unforgettable stay to everyone.

Location & Local Information

Villa Moonlight is located in Županje, one of the most tranquil villages in Croatia. While most destinations in the region are high-paced with a crowded nightlife, it offers a sanctuary of peace and solitude.

An intimate hideout in Krk, the villa is flanked by dazzling coastlines and lush green views. While it's nestled in a quaint, leafy neighbourhood, you're never too far from a host of activities.

If you're looking for retail therapy, look no further than the city centre, located about 3.7 km from the villa. A vibrant, bustling shopping complex, it's a treasure trove of humble stores and charming local shops.

The town of Šilo is a 5-minute drive, with a rich mix of restaurants, boutiques and bars. Soak in the pebbled beaches of Crikvenica and enjoy a relaxed family outing.

The villa is a 2-hour drive from Pula, a sought-after city known for its stunning Roman architecture. Head to Pula Arena, the 6th biggest amphitheatre in the world. Once home to thrilling gladiatorial fights, it hosts a range of music concerts and outdoor cinemas.

Discover dinosaur footprints in Brijuni National Park and explore underground tunnel systems from World War II at Zerostrasse. Built in 1903, the Pula Market Hall remains popular for locally-harvested vegetables, cheese and fish of all varieties. Dig into a sumptuous burek (a savoury pastry) at one of the many pop-up bakeries nearby.
