

Maison Sucre

Region: Saint Tropez Sleeps: 12

Overview

Maison Sucre is nestled in La Croix Valmer's verdant hills and is an ideal holiday home for families or groups of friends. Here you will find feature fireplaces, stunning landscaped gardens, gorgeous al fresco dining and lounge spaces and a fabulous pool. Along with its magical views of the Mediterranean Sea and Gigaro Beach, Maison Sucre will leave you with wonderful holiday memories that will stay with you forever.

Maison Sucre is built over two floors with spacious living and dining areas, a fantastic country kitchen, a well-equipped gym and six en-suite bedrooms. Its main living area is warm and inviting with a stone fireplace and sumptuous sofas. The views are simply astonishing and the vast glass doors drown this exquisite space in natural light. This living area connects to a fabulous dining area with another fireplace and more garden views. Doors also open from here to an al-fresco dining terrace. The kitchen comes with an enormous range cooker, lovely country-style kitchen cupboards and yet another dining table and chairs - perfect for breakfast. The maison's gym is well-equipped, perfect for those that want to keep up their fitness levels whilst on holiday.

The bedrooms are spread over both floors and are all en-suite. Some of the bedroom also have a sofa and the master bedroom has a balcony with sea views. It is a wonderful spot for your morning cup of coffee or watching the sun go down with a chilled glass of wine.

Maison Sucre's tasteful interiors are matched in beauty with its extensive landscaped gardens. You will discover lush lawns, towering mature trees, a heated swimming pool and sun loungers. You will also find lounge areas and a boules pitch for enjoying time together, and a shaded al-fresco dining terrace and barbecue for cooking up delicious meals on balmy evenings.

This fantastic property is only ten minutes away from Gigaro beach and just over twenty minutes by car from Saint-Tropez, which alongside the glitz and glamour has twice weekly markets, a warren of tiny squares and alleyways and a warm and inviting atmosphere.

Location & Local Information

La Croix-Valmer has a history closely linked to the wine industry and its weekly market is one of the most famous in the Gulf of Saint Tropez and a brilliant place to pick up wine and local produce. The village also hosts many cultural events, exhibitions, concerts and festivals throughout the year and there is a small open air theatre where performances are held during the summer.

Gigaro is beautiful with its collection of coves, headlands and bays. It boasts magnificent sunsets and superb views of the Iles d'Or as well as a great selection of bars and restaurants. The nearby Plage de Jovat is fantastic for snorkelling with guided sessions available during the summer from instructors of the Service Espaces Maritimes.

The charming village of Grimaud is also worth a visit. Views from its medieval castle captivate visitors and its warren of narrow streets are lined with stairways, vaulted arches, art galleries and a mill.

Gassin is one of the 'Plus Beaux Villages de France' and is only 6km away from Maison Sucre. It is home to the narrowest street in the world and the delicious smell of jasmine hangs in the air throughout this captivating village. The new town of Gassin, designed by Francois Spoerry, has been built below the medieval village and was awarded a prize for the best new town in Europe.

Nearby, Ramatuelle is a medieval village with a charming central square. It boasts a maze of winding streets sprinkled with fountains, pretty houses and wrought iron décor. Its ochre facades and pastel toned shutters are adorned with honeysuckle and vibrant bougainvillea. The famous sandy Pampelonne beaches are close to this village so don't forget to stop there too.

Saint Tropez is synonymous with Brigitte Bardot, films, and its vibrant jet-set scene. Once a sleepy fishing village, it is now a favourite destination for the rich and famous with its buzzing harbour, glamorous festivities, impressive citadel, a prestigious Polo Club and a 5km sandy beach. The Old Town of Saint Tropez is a brilliant place to wander. The 18th century Église Notre-Dame-de-l'Assomption towers over the terracotta rooftops and the Musée d'Annonciade is the oldest modern art museum in France, dating back to 1922. The town is also a shopper's paradise, packed with trendy boutiques, shoe shops, chocolate shops, antique emporiums and art galleries. If you visit on a Tuesday or Saturday morning, you can visit the wonderful open-air market stalls at Place des Lices where you can stock up on freshly baked bread and delicious local produce.
