Location & Local Information

Villa Eugene enjoys a heavenly, exclusive location in Tigani, moments from its wonderful, secluded beach. The beach is quiet with its visitors generally arriving by boat or luxury yacht to enjoy the serene beauty of this part of the island. There are no hotels in this area, just luxury villas that magically blend into the rocky hillsides. It will just be you, the endless blue of the sky and the turquoise Aegean water that seem to become one.

Mykonos certainly adds a touch of glamour to the Greek Islands. This fabulous island is not only brimming with gorgeous white sandy beaches, most offering buzzy beach bars and watersports, but also boasts a long list of jet-set nightclubs, a wonderful array of fine dining restaurants, vibrant cocktail bars, classy boutiques and charming whitewashed villages. It is little wonder that Mykonos is a celeb mecca akin to Ibiza and Miami. Even though Villa Argos sits in the quiet end of the island, you are never far away from the island's vibrant side.

Mykonos Town, roughly thirty minutes from the villa, boasts an enchanting warren of spidery, narrow lanes covered in bougainvillea. Lavished with picturesque churches, quirky art galleries, chic boutiques, jewellery shops and charming restaurants, visitors love an afternoon meander. The town's museums, the Archaeological Museum and the Aegean Maritime Museum are worth a stop. The ethereal beauty of Little Venice is a favourite haunt of highly acclaimed artists and Instagram followers. It is one of the most romantic places on the island with elegant old houses sitting on the edge of the sea creating a magical aura and an abundance of buzzy bars.

The picturesque village of Ano Mera is only fifteen minutes from the villa, sitting in the heart of the island. With classical Cycladic beauty, it offers quaint, scenic, narrow streets, traditional tavernas, unique shops and its famous monastery of Panagia Tourliani. The monastery was built in the 15th century and is one of the main attractions of the whole island. Ano Mera's main square is pedestrianised and surrounded by charming cafes and tavernas that are renowned for their excellent Mykonian meats cooked on the spit and barbecue. You will also discover the 'Kopanisti' workshop where the local delicious spicy cheese is made.

When you want a change from Tigani Beach you can explore the others. Elia, Ornos, Psarou, Paraga, Paradise, Kalafatis and Plati Gialos are all firm favourites. Ornos Beach is one of Mykonos' trendiest beaches offering many places to eat and is a frequent stop for many boats and yachts. Paradise Beach and Super Paradise Beaches are the home of some of the island's most famous nightclubs. Kalo Livadi Beach is set in a valley sprinkled with sugar cubed homes. It comes with a stunning long ribbon of sand, sun loungers and straw umbrellas and some excellent watersports.

Tourlos is located on the north side of the island, just 2.5km from Mykonos Town and close to the villa. It enjoys a magnificent port, a stop for many cruise ships, and a smart harbour. The houses are freshly painted with colourful shutters and draped in vibrant bougainvillea and other pretty flowers. Many celebrities have chosen to build luxury villas here. The Chapel of St George Spilianos, north of the harbour, is delightful. It is built into the cavity of a rock with a lovely ambience and where you can light a candle. Tourlos boasts a magical, organised beach with watersports.

As well as being a party lover and boutique shoppers' paradise, Mykonos is a whitewashed, Grecian gem with lush hillsides waiting to be explored. The Panagia Turlaina and Paleokastro Monasteries are centuries old buildings worth a visit if you can bring yourselves to leave the serenity of Villa Eugene.
