Location & Local Information

Sailing Club Mui Ne's Beachfront Bungalows enjoy uninterrupted sea views and lovely decks in this dreamy resort in Mui Ne in the southern coastal region of Phan Thiet. Holidays in Vietnam offer glorious beaches, historic and hectic cities and towns, striking natural landscapes and a wonderfully friendly vibe. The name Mui Ne has many origins including the fishermen of the past who faced storms and had to hide in a cape which was called 'Mui' in Vietnamese and hide meant 'Ne'. The second originated as the name of the youngest daughter of Cham King who was the owner of the land. Her alias was Ne and the cape where her temple was built was called 'Mui Ne'. Kitesurfing is a huge draw to Mui Ne with many excellent schools and world-class wind conditions. Mui Ne boasts a beautiful desert formation with white sand dunes which you can visit through the resort or independently. It is one of the biggest attractions. The area enjoys a small lagoon covered in lotus flowers and a small pine forest. Mui Ne's harbour is stunning, particularly at night when the little boats are lit up.

Roughly forty minutes drive from the resort is the amazing Ta Cu Reclining Buddha, the longest reclining Buddha statue on top of a mountain in Asia. It lies in a very scenic area which includes temples, Buddhist statues and breathtaking mountain views. Construction of the Buddha began in 1963 and was completed in 1966. Measuring forty nine metres long and eleven metres high, it is an amazing structure. Reclining Buddhas represent Buddhas as they make their final departure from the human realm. There is a cable car to the top of the mountain and a well-maintained mountain path. The statue lies behind the Linh Son Truong Pagoda built in the late 19th century. While visiting the Ta Cu Mountain you can enjoy a collection of statues called the Pure Land Trinity.

You can take a Phan Thiet Tour exploring picturesque streets, the fish market, the famous Duc Than School, the Ong Pagoda, the Ho Chi Minh Museum, the Van Thuy Temple and the bustling Phan Thiet market. Another way to discover Vietnam is to take a hot air balloon trip. How amazing would that be!

Ho Chi Minh City vibrates with energy, innovation, high rises and traffic. Formerly known as Saigon, it is the beating heart of Vietnam, a cosmopolitan wonder with a dynamic cityscape. You can stroll down Dong Khoi Street to visit the Notre Dame Cathedral, the city's Central Post Office and the Saigon Opera House. You can enjoy small boutiques in huge shopping centres, bustling markets such as the Ben Thanh Market, the Chinese neighbourhood known as Cho Lon and the Thien Hau Pagoda, an atmospheric temple that pays homage to the goddess of the sea. You will enjoy delicious street food around dented metal tables including southern-style savoury pancakes known as banh mi and can do as the locals do and hop on the back of a motorbike to see the city on street level.

The Sea Links Golf & Country Club is only 2km from the resort. In an area of 160 hectares looking out to the South China Sea, the course offers breathtaking views towards the Ke Ga lighthouse and a course that retains much of the original terrain of white dunes. Not only is it beautiful, it is known as the most challenging links course in Asia.

There are plenty of ways to explore this fascinating, colourful region. The resort offers trips, you can take a bus, a 4 by 4, a hot air balloon or a private sightseeing tour.
