

Villa Garden View

Region: Sailing Club Mui Ne Sleeps: 8

Overview

Sailing Club Mui Ne proudly offers one absolutely gorgeous four bedroom villa for a family or perhaps a group of friends travelling together. Overlooking lush tropical gardens, it is built over two floors with bright and airy living spaces and one bedroom on the ground floor and the remaining three bedrooms upstairs.

This fabulous property comes with three and a half bathrooms, a kitchenette, a large dining area and a living area with a television. It also offers a private veranda and lush garden, beautifully furnished for relaxation. The villa is meticulously designed with natural colour palettes, stunning bathrooms and very comfortable furnishings. The villa is nestled within a lush tropical jungle garden where you will enjoy complete privacy and seclusion. The living area is open plan in design with a comfy U-shaped sofa sprinkled with delightful colour pop scatter cushions in one area along with a cable television with movies on demand, a generous dining area in another and a small kitchenette. Doors open to the veranda where you can relax with a cup of coffee or perhaps a glass of your favourite tittle from the minibar later in the day or when the children have gone to sleep.

The downstairs bedroom offers a beautiful dressed queen size bed with a romantic canopy and an immaculate ensuite bathroom with a walk-in shower. It is a blissful, charming room that will bring a smile to your face. Upstairs, the master bedroom enjoys a sizeable dressing room and a large ensuite bathroom with a freestanding bath and shower. The other two bedrooms, one a double and one a twin, share a second pristine bathroom. All of the bathrooms are very beautiful with handmade brass vanity basins, fluffy towels, luxury toiletries and dressing gowns. The attention to detail at Sailing Club Mui Ne Villa Garden View is highly impressive. You will continue to notice special little touches throughout your stay. You will enjoy complimentary tea and coffee, air conditioning and ceiling fans, a safe deposit box, a minibar and cable television. As well as room service, there is an excellent laundry service if required.

The Sailing Club Mui Ne enjoys a spectacular beachfront location within a tropical paradise. The resort boasts thirty one rooms, bungalows and this villa, all having been brilliantly designed to blend luxury and indulgence with sustainability and eco-friendly guest amenities. Mui Ne is a popular coastal fishing town in the south-central Binh Thuan Province of Vietnam. It boasts famous white sand dunes, epic kitesurfing, a gorgeous harbour sprinkled with candy colour fishing boats where you can buy steamed seafood fresh off the boat, colourful markets along with an ancient history and a wonderful array of temples. In Vietnam, you will discover unspoilt golden beaches, striking natural landscapes, vibrant towns steeped in history, French colonial-style mansions and Buddhist pagodas. You will experience a diverse range of culture, history, scenery and relaxation and return at the end of the day to your private Sailing Club Mui Ne Villa Garden View.

The Sailing Club Mui Ne is a small resort for couples and families which offers exceptional service, gorgeous gardens sprinkled with ornate fountains, a fabulous mosaic swimming pool, a fantastic restaurant and bar, a wonderful spa, yoga sessions, cooking classes, watersports and kitesurfing and a very warm welcome. Throughout your stay, you will feel special and truly appreciated. Throughout the resort, you will enjoy the rustic chic decor of thatched roofs, bamboo, warm woods and wonderful colour splashes which all add to the relaxing vibes. You can treat yourself to an open-air massage along with the soothing sounds of running water which lure you into blissful relaxation. Later, you can join a group yoga class just before sunset or request your very own yoga experience. Families love the beautiful resort swimming pool and watersports on the beach. At weekends there is a children's club so parents get a few hours to themselves. You can also take part in cookery classes or learn to kitesurf. Your meals will be taken at the wonderful Sandals Restaurant & Bar where the creative chefs offer wonderfully authentic menus as well as inventive fine dining. Alternatively, for an extra special treat, you can enjoy private dining under the stars on the beach with the sand on your toes, the breeze in your hair and with the soothing sounds of the sea, making the experience all the more memorable. Golf fans will be happy to know that they can play at the nearby Sea Links Golf Course.

Rated as one of Mui Ne's best restaurants, Sandals Kitchen & Bar offers beautifully presented Vietnamese and Western dishes using the freshest, highest-quality ingredients. If you want to join a cookery class, you have the option of a guided tour of Than Phiet Market to see the colourful local bounty and gain tips for choosing the freshest ingredients. The restaurant is committed to sustainable dining so offers specially-priced vegetarian meals on meat-free Mondays and bamboo straws for all drinks. Any time of day, Sandals offers a wonderful setting, be it morning lattes while watching the kitesurfers jump the waves or a delicious cocktail or a glass of their very own Sailing Club dragon fruit craft beer under an orange, pink and red hued sky.

Hidden behind the lush palms and gorgeous birds of paradise is the fabulous Xanh Spa, an oasis of calm, revival, relaxation and rejuvenation. You can choose from a wonderful array of luxury treatments combining the very best of ancient and modern techniques.

The Sailing Club Leisure Group was founded in 1994 and was where it all began. The Sailing Club Resort Mui Ne opened in 2002. Staying at Sapa House, you have access to this prestigious club and its wonderful family. The Sailing Club Kite School is one of the longest-established and most reputable schools in town. It offers an outstanding programme of lessons for all abilities in kitesurfing, kayaking, paddle boarding and bodyboarding with a very friendly, enthusiastic watersports team.

If you are celebrating something special you may want to consider a package of treats including transfers, candlelit dinners on the beach, spa treatments and sparkling wine or champagne. If you can bear to leave this corner of paradise, you can explore Vietnam and some of its treasures including The Lying Buddha, Ta Cu Mountain, Ho Chi Minh Museum, the Van Thuy Tu Temple, the white sand dunes and numerous pagodas. With a landscape of salt pans, lakes, rice paddies, beaches and mountains, you will certainly return home with heavenly holiday memories.

Location & Local Information

Sailing Club Mui Ne Villa Garden View is nestled within a glorious tropical jungle garden in this luxury resort in Mui Ne in the southern coastal region of Phan Thiet. Holidays in Vietnam offer glorious beaches, historic and hectic cities and towns, striking natural landscapes and a wonderfully friendly vibe. The name Mui Ne has many origins including the fishermen of the past who faced storms and had to hide in a cape which was called 'Mui' in Vietnamese and hide meant 'Ne'. The second originated as the name of the youngest daughter of Cham King who was the owner of the land. Her alias was Ne and the cape where her temple was built was called 'Mui Ne'. Kitesurfing is a huge draw to Mui Ne with many excellent schools and world-class wind conditions. Mui Ne boasts a beautiful desert formation with white sand dunes which you can visit through the resort or independently. It is one of the biggest attractions. The area enjoys a small lagoon covered in lotus flowers and a small pine forest. Mui Ne's harbour is stunning, particularly at night when the little boats are lit up.

Roughly forty minutes drive from the resort is the amazing Ta Cu Reclining Buddha, the longest reclining Buddha statue on top of a mountain in Asia. It lies in a very scenic area which includes temples, Buddhist statues and breathtaking mountain views. Construction of the Buddha began in 1963 and was completed in 1966. Measuring forty nine metres long and eleven metres high, it is an amazing structure. Reclining Buddhas represent Buddhas as they make their final departure from the human realm. There is a cable car to the top of the mountain and a well-maintained mountain path. The statue lies behind the Linh Son Truong Pagoda built in the late 19th century. While visiting the Ta Cu Mountain you can enjoy a collection of statues called the Pure Land Trinity.

You can take a Phan Thiet Tour exploring picturesque streets, the fish market, the famous Duc Than School, the Ong Pagoda, the Ho Chi Minh Museum, the Van Thuy Temple and the bustling Phan Thiet market. Another way to discover Vietnam is to take a hot air balloon trip. How amazing would that be!

Ho Chi Minh City vibrates with energy, innovation, high rises and traffic. Formerly known as Saigon, it is the beating heart of Vietnam, a cosmopolitan wonder with a dynamic cityscape. You can stroll down Dong Khoi Street to visit the Notre Dame Cathedral, the city's Central Post Office and the Saigon Opera House. You can enjoy small boutiques in huge shopping centres, bustling markets such as the Ben Thanh Market, the Chinese neighbourhood known as Cho Lon and the Thien Hau Pagoda, an atmospheric temple that pays homage to the goddess of the sea. You will enjoy delicious street food around dented metal tables including southern-style savoury pancakes known as banh mi and can do as the locals do and hop on the back of a motorbike to see the city on street level.

The Sea Links Golf & Country Club is only 2km from the resort. In an area of 160 hectares looking out to the South China Sea, the course offers breathtaking views towards the Ke Ga lighthouse and a course that retains much of the original terrain of white dunes. Not only is it beautiful, it is known as the most challenging links course in Asia.

There are plenty of ways to explore this fascinating, colourful region. The resort offers trips, you can take a bus, a 4 by 4, a hot air balloon or a private sightseeing tour.
