

Villa Rhodo

Region: Lefkada Sleeps: 2

Overview

If you are looking for somewhere cute, romantic, simple, totally secluded and brilliantly located to explore the magical island of Lefkada, Villa Rhodo could easily be the property of your dreams. You can leave your worries behind and relax under the Lefkada sunshine beside your private pool, enjoying the sensational countryside and sea views. With a gorgeous stone and bright yellow painted exterior, Villa Rhodo is a peaceful, romantic haven nestled in the heart of this dreamy island near the charming mountain village of Lazarata. Villa Rhodo is perfect for romantic couples wanting to live amongst glorious countryside for a week or two enjoying simple pleasures. This delightful villa comes with one bedroom, an open-plan living space and a traditional curvy shower room. If you have a small family, there is room for a cot or pull-out bed or you may want to look at our larger villas in this dreamy area.

Lefkas is a dreamy lush island surrounded by beautiful, knock-out beaches and amazing coves and boasts a stunning, green interior brimming with scenic hilly countryside and hilltop villages. Lazarata is a breezy charming village in the north of Lefkada where a former tavern has been turned into the first pub brewery in Greece. In the summer, the microbrewery also serves delicious pizzas, tarte flambee and homemade surprises. In the winter, creativity runs and will surprise everyone. The craft beer is delicious. Lazarata is a little larger than its neighbouring villages of Asprogerakata, Pinakochori and Kavallos. The nearby village of Karya is one of the largest villages on the island, with a wonderful museum and lots of opportunities to buy handmade crafts. Villa Rhodo is surrounded by lush hills sprinkled with trees, vineyards, olive groves and farmland. Not far from the villa are the seaside villages and towns of Agios Nikitas, Nikiana, Nidri and Lefkada Town and the beautiful beaches of Pefkoulia, Milos, Kalamitsi, Porto Katsiki, Egremni and Kathisma.

Villa Rhodo's open-plan living space is homely and charming with exposed stone walls, a characterful high beamed ceiling and some unique furnishings. It boasts a modern corner sofa, an attractive feature fireplace, a very unusual dining table and stools and a kitchenette. Though it is not a full kitchen, there is a coffee maker, a small fridge freezer and a small oven. A satellite television and DVD player are provided for your entertainment.

The bedroom is located on the upper floor with fabulous views, another atmospheric beamed ceiling and a double bed, adorned with crisp cotton sheets and smart soft furnishings. The downstairs bathroom is simply designed with a built-in curvy wet-room style shower and sink. It comes with fluffy towels and some lovely fragrant toiletries. The villa is cosy and a good pick for those that appreciate the simple things in life, living outdoors and appreciating nature.

Villa Rhodo's garden is a delight, enjoying breathtaking sea views from its hilltop position. It is the ideal place to relax, unwind and rejuvenate. The pool is perfect for a cooling dip, surrounded by a furnished terrace, lush lawns, exotic plants, towering trees and sun loungers that match the painted shutters. You will totally relax here, enjoying your holiday books, the sunshine, a bottle of local island wine and some delicious local delicacies. There is a shaded alfresco dining area and some lovely spots for a pre-dinner drink that will make your heart sing.

Location & Local Information

Lefkada, otherwise known as Lefkas, is a lush, beautiful island surrounded by fabulous beaches. Its scenic hilly countryside is sprinkled with quaint hilltop villages such as Lazarata. You can climb mountain peaks and walk or cycle along the many trails, captivated by the gorgeous scenery. Some of the best places to see are the Skari Mountain with its centenarian oak trees, the gorge of Melissa, the water springs of Dafni and Kersia and Elati Mountain. When hiking, you will enjoy exploring ancient monasteries, small churches and gorgeous villages. The mountain village of Karya, is lovely with its central square full of busy taverna tables under the shade of a huge plant tree. Visitors enjoy the local Karysaniki embroidery, once a vital part of the national dress. North-east of Karya and surrounded by towering cypress trees, mountain scenery and craggy cliffs is Lazarata, the nearest village to Villa Rhodo. It boasts two notable churches, Agios Dionissis and Agios Spiridonas as well as some friendly cafes, restaurants, a bakery and shops. Lazarata is surrounded by vineyards, olive groves, citrus plantations and red-roofed houses. Nearby are the sleepy villages of Asprogeratkata, Kavallos and Pinakochori. You can take an organised mountain bike tour of the island, a great way to see the island from a different perspective. Some cycling tours also include the stunning neighbouring island of Meganisi. It is quite remarkable that Lefkas remains under the tourist radar and feels like a special secret.

Pefkoulia, Milos and Kathisma beaches are all close to Villa Rhodo. Milos is wonderful. Kathisma Beach faces the Ionian archipelago, offering fine dazzling white sand, sparkling turquoise waters and a good selection of beach bars and sun loungers. Pefkoulia Beach is an impressive sandy beach close to the fishing village of Agios Nikitas. The beach can get quite crowded in the summer as it is so popular. Among the island's most beautiful beaches are Egremni which is also within easy reach, Kathisma and the mesmerising Porto Katsiki which is adored for its golden sands and fascinating landscape. The unique beauty of Egremni's two and a half kilometre beach has made it one of the most photographed landscapes on the island. Its name comes from the impressive cliffs that surround the beach. The best beaches for windsurfing and kitesurfing are Agios Ioannis and Vassiliki. Nidri Beach is very organised with an excellent watersports centre and plenty of loungers, parasols and beach bars.

Nidri is the largest of the tourist towns with Nikiana is the second. The town boasts an endless list of amenities and activities, irresistible sandy beaches, unforgettable views, an excellent dining scene and beautiful scenery. Nidri and Sivota are favourites with yacht charter firms. Island hopping is very popular, very easy and very enjoyable. Excursion boats can take you to the local islets and the secluded coastal bays of Lefkas. Ferries can take you to Ithaca and Kefalonia. The gorgeous Geni peninsula is a fifteen minute drive around the bay from Nidri or a five minute crossing by boat. Geni village is a friendly, traditional fishing village where you will be made to feel very welcome in its charming waterfront tavernas. Another fabulous place to visit is the medieval castle of Santa Maura.

Wine lovers enjoy Lefkas Earth, the home of some fine local wines. You can combine this stop with a fresh seafood lunch overlooking the brilliant blue waters at Sivota or Vasiliki.

What we love

- Villa Rhodo is an idyllic romantic hideaway with gorgeous sea and countryside views and total privacy
- The villa boasts a wonderful mature garden with a delightful pool and a lovely alfresco dining area
- The villa is a fabulous base for exploring the island's hilltop villages and wonderful walking trails

What you should know...

- The villa is simply styled with a mix of modern and vintage furnishings. It offers a small kitchenette rather than a full kitchen
- On request, a cot and/or a fold-out bed can be supplied for one or two children
- If you enjoy hiking or cycling, there are some spectacular trails through the mountains, gorges, waterfalls and charming mountain villages
- There are several wineries on Lefkas where you can enjoy delicious local wines. You can visit Lefkas Earth Winery and Lefkakitiki Gi Winery and when you have had enough of the wine tasting you can move on to the local ouzo!
