

Villa Trigo

Region: Vilamoura Sleeps: 6

Overview

As soon as you approach the white walls of this spectacular Portuguese villa, you'll feel like you're living a life of luxury. A lush green garden wraps around the property, adding an abundance of nature to the villa. A minimalist design of whites, creams, and terracotta sits against the bright blue sky, making Villa Trigo a Mediterranean oasis where guests can truly sit back and relax in style.

Mediterranean charm continues inside the house, which is filled with natural light—crisp white walls and natural stone flooring run through the property giving a cosy yet luxurious feel. Treading across the floor into the living room, guests will feel like they are truly on holiday as the Portuguese breeze runs through the house. The lounge is modern and spacious and furnished with sleek monochrome furnishings. A working fireplace means curling up with a glass of wine if the nights turn cooler. Adjoining the living room is a pleasant dining area which seats eight people and looks out onto the private pool area and pretty green garden.

The kitchen is fully-equipped and is decorated to a modern, monochrome aesthetic with natural features like wooden counters and cool, tiled floors. It comes with its own coffee machine, so guests needing their morning cup of java won't have to go far to get it. The kitchen also has a view of the outside greenery, making it a beautiful space to relax and prepare delicious dishes from local ingredients.

Villa Trigo comfortably sleeps up to six guests, offering one double bedroom with a built-in wardrobe, air conditioning, flat screen tv, private bathroom, and a balcony with a pool view. The private bathroom has a bath, sink, and toilet. Each with a double bed. The remaining two bedrooms have twin beds with built-in wardrobes, air conditioning, and a private bathroom.

The outdoor area is always a hit with guests, and the private pool is undoubtedly a highlight of the property. Sun worshippers will be in their element by the pool, and it's easy to see why guests spend hours here topping up their tans. You'll be surrounded by Portuguese greenery and the natural landscape, so your time outdoors is guaranteed to be peaceful and rejuvenating.

If you're in the mood to cook outdoors, then the outside area boasts a charcoal BBQ plus a dining area for eight. The space is perfect for some outdoor entertaining and was built with those long summer evenings in mind.

Location & Local Information

The town of Vilamoura is located in Central Algarve and is one of Europe's most sought-after holiday destinations. Its focal point is the marina complex which dazzles with its fine dining options, stylish bars and a harbour which, in the summer, fills with million-dollar yachts, freeing up the owners to walk the sun-filled streets. The Marina is also a launching pad for a huge range of activities like parasailing, dolphin tours, fishing trips and jet ski adventures.

Holidaymakers who are after sophistication and luxury need look no further as Vilamoura boasts everything they could need. The glitz and glamour of the town combined with beautiful sandy beaches. The largest is Praia da Falésia (translating to 'beach of cliffs') which sits against scorched orange and chalk-white cliffs and untouched natural scenery. The beach offers decent waves for surfing, sunbeds, and watersports, plus a bar and a restaurant so visitors can make a full beach day trip. For hikers, the cliff-top footpaths take you the entire length of the beach and offer unrivalled views of the ocean.

Golf lovers will be in their element at Vilamoura as the town is one of Europe's finest golfing destinations. Known to many as a golfer's paradise, the town offers six 18-hole golf facilities of extremely high standards with top-quality facilities. Highly rated are the iconic Old Golf Course, Millennium Golf Course and the Victoria Golf Course, which is used for the Portugal Masters.

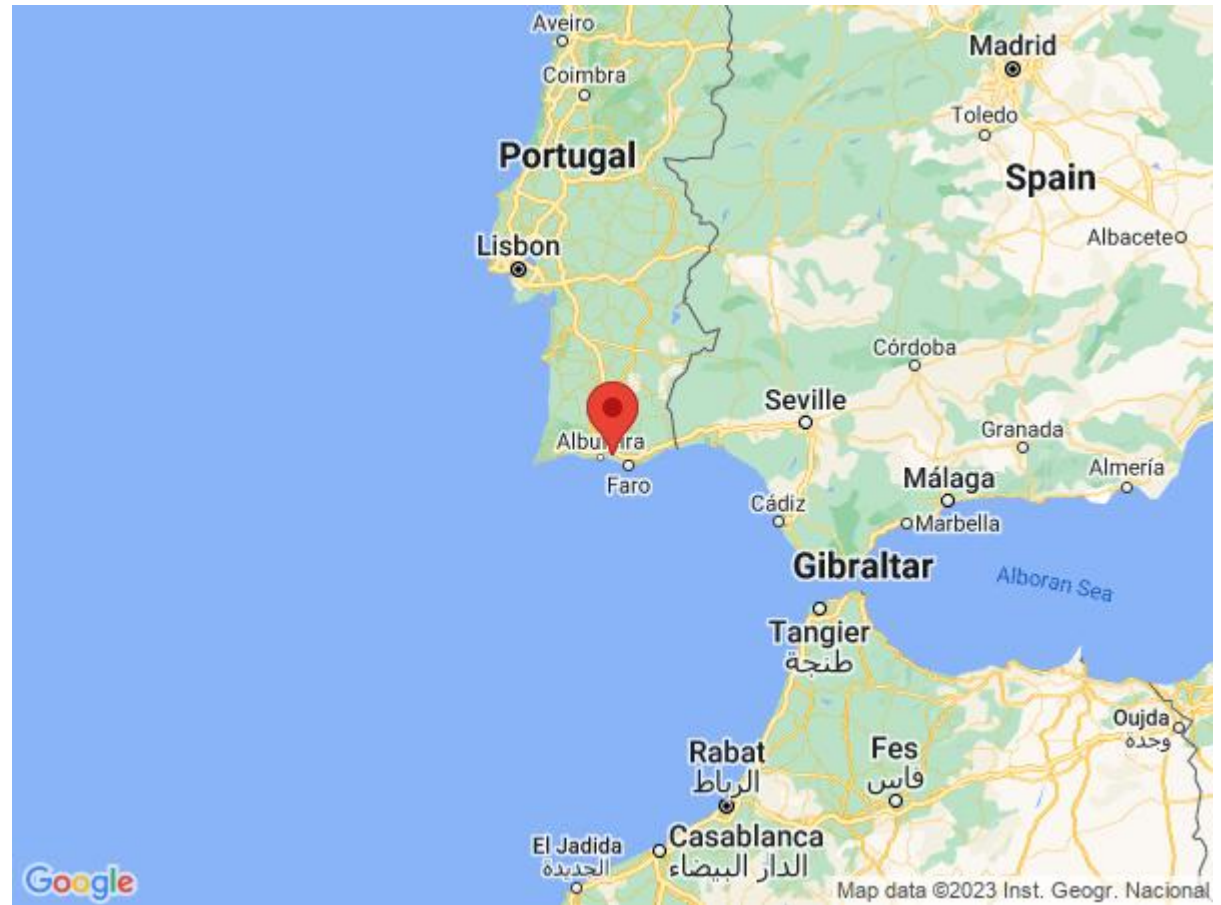

A thirty-minute drive away is the Ludo Hiking Trail, a stunning nature track which gets you up close to the salt pools of Rio Formosa and all its wildlife. The track is a birdwatcher's paradise with flocks of flamingos and Spoonbills year-round. The track is relatively easy, coming in at 7km and will take approximately three to four hours.

For those who want to explore further afield, there's Faro, the capital of the Algarve and home to the winding, cobbled roads of the old town which is surrounded by historic Roman walls. Daily markets sell fresh local produce, as well as handmade crafts and clothing specific to the region. Grab a picnic and head to Praia de Faro for a change in beach scenery, or take a walk along the Marina and soak up the European cafe culture.

What we love

- The villa is perfectly located to take day trips to some of the highlights of the Algarve. Think world-class golf resorts and some of the best beaches in Portugal!
- Kicking back on the sun loungers next to the private pool
- A fully functioning outdoor cooking and seating area means guests can dine al fresco
- A working fireplace adds cosiness if the nights do turn cooler

What you should know...

- The villa has plenty of space, though two of the bedrooms have twin beds only which couples may want to bear in mind
- Multi-level layout might not suit guests with mobility issues
- The private pool is unfenced, and while younger kiddies love to make a splash in there, they should stay supervised
