Location & Local Information

Calheta also offers an outstanding array of tourist attractions, making it a holiday of a lifetime for all guests. The Sugar Cane Mill and Museum is a deeply significant attraction throughout this region and can be found just over 15 minutes away. Guests will have the privilege of exploring a wealth of expert machinery and exhibitions, giving them a chance to expand their perception of this integral form of agriculture. These exhibitions are also translated into multiple languages, making them suitable for foreign guests. If you are travelling to this region in December, you must get into the Christmas spirit and observe the adorable Nativity scene found on-site. The Sugar Cane Mill and Museum is open from 8 am to 7 pm on weekdays and 10 am to 7 pm on weekends and holidays.

Since this region is covered in an abundance of sapphire blue water, guests are encouraged to take part in an immersive scuba diving excursion. Calheta Diving Centre offers guests a variety of essential courses and resources to ensure that they can enjoy every aspect of their underwater adventure. Once they have been given a detailed safety briefing, guests will be allowed to submerge themselves underwater, marvelling at a collection of majestic sea creatures as they travel through. In turn, this is an ideal activity for those who are looking to explore the region's rich biodiversity from a more intimate perspective. Calheta Diving Centre is based just under 10 minutes away from the centre of the region.

Madeira Paragliding is a deeply acclaimed establishment that offers guests a spectacular array of paragliding excursions. During this experience, guests will be asked to leap from a monumental 440m peak, allowing them to bask in a wealth of awe-inspiring views as they slowly travel back to the ground. Each of these experiences is accompanied by a useful safety briefing, ensuring that guests can remain calm and confident throughout their time here. Thus, guests have the opportunity to discover the true natural beauty of this region from a range of new perspectives and heights, making this a once-in-a-lifetime experience. Madeira Paragliding can be found just over 15 minutes away from the centre of Calheta.
