

Villa Alexandros

Region: Kos Sleeps: 8

Overview

Stay in style at the arty Villa Alexandros, near Tigaki beach, on the north of the Dodecanese Greek island of Kos, in the heart of the Aegean Sea. This eco-friendly villa has three double bedrooms, and can comfortably accommodate up to eight guests, ideal for a family, or group of friends sharing. Villa Alexandros is part of a small complex of six luxury properties that are surrounded by nature, reflecting the earth's delicate ecosystem. Combine this back-to-nature ethos with warm Greek hospitality and a relaxing ambience, for the ultimate relaxing holiday. This two-storey villa is set in impressive tropical gardens, populated by mature tall palm trees, local plants, and colourful seasonal flowers.

The villa is surrounded by an immaculately manicured lawn and has its own private heated swimming pool. Villa Alexandros benefits from breathtaking views of the sandy beach and the azure Aegean Sea. The villa has been designed to embrace ethical luxurious living with modern-day amenities, including complimentary Wi-Fi and air conditioning throughout, and state-of-the-art technology. The interiors are furnished with hand-crafted pieces made from locally sourced natural wood, and the walls are adorned with colourful contemporary art and are decorated in a cool palette of crisp clean whites, and subtle earth tones, with dashes and splashes of electric blues. A stay at Villa Alexandros includes the use of the communal "Platia" facilities, where you can meet fellow guests at the bar, improve your whiff whaff with a game of table tennis, whilst your children enjoy the dedicated playground, then dine off local delicacies grilled on the gas barbeque, as you settle down to watch your favourite film at the open air cinema.

Enter the villa at ground floor level, where you will find a super swish light and airy holiday home. The living area is open plan, with floor-to-ceiling sliding doors, that open onto the pool terrace. The seating area has a large four-seater sofa, that can be transformed into a bed to sleep two guests. The adjacent dove grey and white kitchen is fully equipped with everything you will need to cater for your stay, including a built-in oven and hob, a spacious fridge, and that must-have Nespresso coffee maker. The dining area has a smart table and chairs, a flat-screen television, a PlayStation5, and a Marshall Bluetooth sound system. On the ground floor, there are two beautifully-appointed bedrooms. Both bedrooms have exquisitely dressed double beds, pale natural wood furniture, open wardrobes, flat-screen televisions, and floor-to-ceiling sliding glass doors that open onto the pool terrace, ideal for an early morning dip. There is a shared bathroom with a hydromassage rain shower, hand basin, a WC, and complimentary eco-friendly toiletries, Take the internal staircase to the first-floor attic-ceiling master bedroom, with stunning views across the archipelago. This spacious room is creatively decorated with a striking turquoise blue backdrop, it has a built-in king-size bed, bedside tables, an open wardrobe, flat screen television, and a separate seating area with a sofa and coffee table. The ensuite peacock blue and beige bathroom has a walk-in hydromassage rain shower, a modern hand basin, and a WC.

Access the tiled terrace via the living space and ground floor bedrooms, where there is a centrepiece ladder entry private swimming pool, surrounded by built-in soft seating. Deep cushioned beige and cream sun loungers are strategically placed to maximise sun and sea views, whilst lacy parasols offer some shade. While away an afternoon in the poolside hammock catching up with this year's best seller. Enjoy a morning coffee catch-up, and a sundowner cocktail at the veranda-style soft seating area. Eat alfresco under a twinkling Grecian sky at the outside dining table and chairs, as you raise a glass of local wine to a wonderful holiday.

Location & Local Information

Villa Alexandros can be found in a small eco-friendly complex, set in nature with beach and sea views, on the north coast of the beautiful island of Kos, in the heart of the Aegean Sea. The villa is a seventeen kilometres drive from the international airport and just twenty minutes to the capital town of Kos. The island of Kos is the third largest of the Dodecanese, with a one hundred and twelve-kilometre-long coastline, populated with family-friendly beaches, and crystal clear waters. The villa is within walking distance of the tourist resort of Tigaki, where you will find sandy beaches, beach clubs, water sports, bars, cafes, and restaurants, as well as shops stocked with all the provisions you will need for your holiday. Kos is known as the bicycle island, with more than ten miles of cycling lanes, enjoy a scenic sightseeing tour on two wheels.

For those who like a bit of activity, you'll be spoiled for choice with hiking the many walking trails, swimming and snorkelling azure blue waters, kite and windsurfing, paragliding and scuba diving, and horse riding and mountain biking. A trip to Kos town, the capital of the island is a must. Situated on the northeast tip of the island, it's an eleven-kilometre drive away. Here you will find a mix of the ancient, medieval, and modern, as you wander through historic streets you will see the Castle of the Knights of St John, Greek gymnasiums, original agoras, and Ottoman mosques. Neratzia Castle is an imposing fortification over Kos town, whilst the Roman Odeon is just outside. Visit a restored replica of a fifth-century BC house in Hippocrates Garden, and sit under the plane tree, where the father of modern medicine reputedly swore the Hippocratic oath.

Make your way to Eleftherias Square, the town's meeting place in the centre of Kos, where you will find the Archeological Museum, stuffed with artefacts from the island's history. Or enjoy the simple pleasures of some homemade meze and a glass of retsina, as you watch the world go by. For somewhere more traditionally Greek, visit some of the lesser-known villages, go south to Kefalos, and wend your way around the labyrinthine alleyways to the Folklore Museum, swim in the azure sea, then dine on freshly caught seafood at the old port. Take to the mountains to see the village of Zia, a tiny village on Mount Dikaioi, and walk the cobbled lanes with its blue and white houses, and shops for souvenirs of handmade artefacts. Not far from the villa is the Alikes Wetland Reserve, where fresh and saltwater meet to form a lagoon, which attracts migrating flamingos and pelicans. Take a tour and visit one of the many vineyards, where you can sample the wine, and take a bottle or two home with you.

If you are feeling adventurous, island hop from Kos to the adjacent Dodecanese destinations of Kalimonos and Pserimos. Go even further afield and board the ferry across the Aegean to the ancient town of Bodrum in southwest Turkey. In the evening if it's nightlife you're after, go into Tigaki for some cracking karaoke, and Greek-themed dining, and dance yourself dizzy to some rocking DJs. Or go into Kos town for some serious all-night clubbing and beach parties.

What we love

- If you love contemporary art, you'll love staying in Villa Alexandros, where modern paintings adorn the walls in a delightfully dramatic setting
- The master bedroom is fabulous, snuggled under the eaves of the first floor, with a sweeping vista out to the archipelago and beyond, the impressive background artwork, the built-in king-size bed, the separate seating area and the ensuite bathroom, all make this space very special
- We love the hydromassage rain showers in all the bathrooms, leave you feeling really clean, refreshed and relaxed all at the same time
- The barbeque evening at the Platia is great for family and friends get-togethers, and a chance to meet the other guests, over delicious Greek food

What you should know...

- The villa can accommodate up to eight guests, six in the double bedrooms, and two on the sofa bed in the living area
- There are no single beds, there are three doubles and a sofa bed, great for couples sharing, or a friendly family
- There are only two bathrooms, the ground floor which is shared between up to six guests, and the ensuite in the master bedroom – there may be a queue for those hydromassage showers!
