Location & Local Information

Duoro is a truly outstanding region and offers an abundance of insightful attractions for guests to discover. Quinta do Panascal is one of the most iconic wineries in the area and can be found less than half an hour away from the centre of the region. This establishment was first founded in 1992 and has continued to attract a selection of avid guests who are looking to discover more about the complex world of wine production. Guests can also embark on a detailed self-guided tour, where they will have the chance to marvel at an assortment of traditional wine-making practices. Then, you will be asked to sample an exquisite range of port wines, giving you a true taste of this bustling and legacy-defining industry.

The Sanctuary of Our Lady of the Remedies is one of the most significant religious landmarks throughout Duoro and is a must-see attraction for any adventurous traveller. This remarkable building is the national monument of the city of Lamego and is based at the very top of Mount St Stephen. As such, guests must climb at least 600 steps in order to explore every aspect of this outstanding landmark. Once inside, you can gain a better understanding of Duoro's rich catholic history and roots. The Sanctuary of Our Lady of the Remedies is just over 15 minutes away from the centre of the region.

If you are visiting this region in September, you must partake in the incredible Vindima program. During this riveting event, guests will be asked to squash fresh grapes with their bare feet as a way to aid in the production of local wine. Although this may seem like an unconventional approach, it is a common practice seen throughout Portugal. In turn, tourists now have the chance to dive into this vibrant culture and blend in with the native population. This activity is carried out by Quinta do Infantado, a grand estate located just over 40 minutes away from the centre of Duoro. This estate also allows guests to allow enjoy a collection of wine-tasting excursions, allowing them to try some of their own creations.
