

Villa Jenó

Region: Oia and the Caldera Sleeps: 4

Overview

Located in one of Greece's most picturesque destinations, Villa Jenó is a home like no other. A dreamy two-bedroom getaway for four, it's tucked away in the region of Foinikiá, only 19 km from the sought-after Santorini Port. Surrounded by delightful pastel-hued homes, the villa looks out onto playful Mediterranean waves, offering a stay that's as relaxing as it's enthralling.

The sprawling open deck is one of its most impressive features, boasting an elegant hot tub and sweeping landscapes. Bask outside on cosy lounge chairs and unwind under large parasols. Spacious terraces teem with comfy day beds for you to savour stunning views of the city. An outdoor dining table is provided for delightful al-fresco meals. Spread across 130 sq meters, the home welcomes you with a refreshing ambience throughout the day. The interiors are a blend of past and present, old and new. Charming boho accents go perfectly with contemporary fixtures.

The living area is a space of white-washed walls and soothing neutral colours. Gather around its roaring fireplace and spend quality time with your loved ones. Graceful wooden elements and bright chandeliers complete the room with a tranquil atmosphere. Make yourself comfortable in front of the TV and catch up on your favourite shows. Or, enjoy an afternoon of family cooking in the adjoining, open-plan kitchen. Well-equipped, it's kitted with rustic wooden cabinetry, an oven and a refrigerator. Dig into flavourful local cuisine at the indoor dining table.

Both bedrooms are tastefully designed, promising a restful night's sleep. Each has a plush double bed with a sumptuous en-suite bathroom and large picture windows. One of the bedrooms also features a 4-seater bar table, ideal for a round of midnight cocktails.

Villa Jenó offers an effortlessly stylish and home-like stay with a chance to experience the breathtaking wonders of the Mediterranean Sea.
