

Apartment Guistina

Region: Rome Sleeps: 4 - 6

Overview

Vacation with a view when you stay in Apartment Guistina, part of the Inn at the Roman Forum, in the historic heart of ancient Rome. Apartment Guistina has its own independent entrance facing the original Inn, yet still enjoys all the added value complimentary benefits the hotel has to offer. This luxury apartment has two double bedrooms and two single sofa beds, and can comfortably accommodate up to six guests, ideal for a family or friends' sharing.

Recently renovated, the apartment is arranged over two floors, with its own private terrace with scenic views and charming patio furniture, that overlook the ancient city walls. The furnishings and décor are contemporary, light, bright, and airy. The sitting room features a white wood timbered ceiling, two single sofa beds, an open fireplace, comfy armchairs, coffee and occasional tables, and a flat screen satellite television. There is a fully fitted kitchen, equipped with everything you will need to cater during your stay, including a built-in oven and hob, a washing machine and dishwasher, a fridge freezer, and that must-have morning coffee maker. A stylish white bar with high stools is the perfect place to start the day. The apartment has two spacious beautifully-appointed double bedrooms with flat screen televisions, and two large bathrooms with walk-in showers, hand basins, and WCs.

A stay in this apartment includes the use of The Inn at the Roman Forum's fabulous facilities and amenities. A bountiful buffet breakfast with a view is served daily in The Rooftop Lounge. After a day's sightseeing, as the sun sets over the Eternal City, enjoy a complimentary classic Italian Aperitivo Buffet, served every evening in The Rooftop Lounge. You will love the Nespresso machine in The Lobby, where you can enjoy complimentary coffee all day long. Spend an evening in The Lounge, where you can relax over cocktails blended by the talented mixologist, and raise a toast to your Roman holiday. Ask The Concierge team to assist you with anything, including booking tickets, baby-sitting, arranging transport, recommending restaurants, sending gifts, providing personal shoppers, and going above and beyond to make your stay at Apartment Guistina the most memorable one.

Location & Local Information

Apartment Guistina is adjacent to the main building of the Inn at the Roman Forum, and located in the ancient centre of Rome, the capital city of Italy, half down the west coast. The Inn at the Roman Forum is just sixteen kilometres from Rome's international Ciampino Airport, which can be reached by either a taxi or a direct train ride. The main Roma Termini train station is a kilometre away, and the nearest underground station is Cavour. There is something for everyone to enjoy when you holiday in Rome, whether its ancient history and culture, renaissance art and architecture, music and opera, food and fashion, or the simply joy of sipping a cappuccino in a street side café and watching people pass by, the Eternal City has got the lot. The Inn at the Roman Forum is set in the heart of historic ancient Rome, with iconic sights just a short stroll away. Walk in the steps of the Caesars, poets, and philosophers as you stroll down the stone street of the Via dei Fori Imperiali, and follow the route from the ancient Forum to the amphitheatre of the Colosseum. Everywhere you go there are ornate churches, rich with decorative icons, don't miss a visit to the nearby Church of Saints Quirico and Giulitta, with its impressive Romanesque Bell Tower.

No visit to Rome is complete without a walk through the Vatican Museum and its magnificent art collection. Look up and admire Michelangelo's Sistine Chapel ceiling, then take the double helix staircase to the glory that is the Basilica of St Peter. For some fine art make sure you don't miss the Borghese Gallery, set in a gorgeous garden, housing the incredible collection of Canova marble sculptures. On the stroll back, stop at Harry's Bar for a Bellini, then walk down the Spanish steps and visit the Romantic poet Keat's house, before sampling English muffins at the famous Babington's Tea Rooms, established in 1893. Saunter down the iconic Via dei Condotti, and window shop for fabulous fashion designer brand labels, and must-have hand crafted leather handbags. Enjoy the bustling squares of Piazza Barberini and Navona, and marvel at the famous marble Trevi fountain. See the light at the Pantheon, aim for noon for maximum illumination. Go to the outskirts of the city and across the Old Appian Way to discover the hidden treasures of the catacombs, join a guided tour, or make your own way there. If you fancy a day trip out of Rome, the town of Tivoli is just thirty kilometres away, where you can visit Hadrian's Villa, and the exquisite Villa D'Este. During the day dine on freshly made pizza and pasta and homemade ice cream, eat alfresco in one of the many squares, sit back and people watch as the world and the beautiful people pass by. In the evening take a trip to the foodie heaven of Trastevere, and taste the delights of traditional Italian cooking just like nonna used to make, in one of its many restaurants.

What we love

- We love a view at Oliver's Travels, and the terrace of this apartment delivers a vista with a difference, overlooking the ancient city walls, one can only imagine who has trod those stone paths to the Forum
- The décor of Apartment Guistina is lovely, light, and bright, we especially like the white timbered beam ceiling in the sitting room, it gave the apartment a country cottage in the heart of ancient Rome vibe
- The independent entrance gives you a sense of your own home and a feeling of privacy, and with the main building directly opposite you can still enjoy all the excellent amenities the Inn at the Roman Forum has to offer
- We loved the tranquil garden that was part of the hotel. So colourful, populated with seasonal plants and flowers, and so peaceful in the heart of bustling Rome, a great place to escape the madding tourist crowds

What you should know...

- Complimentary Aperitivo, served from 5-8pm on The Rooftop Lounge is subject to the purchase of a drink, well worth it for the fabulous views
- The two sofas beds in the living area can only accommodate one person each bed, with a maximum of six occupants for the property
- This apartment has an independent entrance and is located directly in front of the main building of the Inn at the Roman Forum, you can still enjoy all their excellent facilities and amenities
