Location & Local Information

Villa Mela offers a sensational location, sitting amongst spectacular natural scenery as well as being a short drive away from amenities. Reach the terrific city of Ostuni in just a 10 minute drive where you will be treated to a wide array of marvellous restaurants, bars, museums and historical landmarks. Some of the best places to try out the local cuisine in this city are Osteria Piazzetta Cattedrale and Osteria Del Tempo Perso located in an ancient cave. The closest supermarket to the villa is also just a 5 minute drive away.

What's more, Ostuni is commonly known as "La Città Bianca" due to the gorgeous white washed buildings in its old town. Therefore, a stroll through this charming part of the city is a must-do. Additionally, don't miss the Duomo di Ostuni, the city walls and the Arco di Scoppa. You'll find some of the best ice cream in town at La Cremeria La Scala and for some impressive architecture head to the main square, Piazza della Libertà.

Moreover, at Villa Mela you are only a short drive away from some tremendous beaches. From this property you can get to the fabulous Costa Merlata beach in just 20 minutes by car. Some other nearby beaches worth visiting include the dazzling Quarto di Monte beach and Spiaggia di Torre Guaceto. Both are between a 25 to 30 minute drive away from the property.

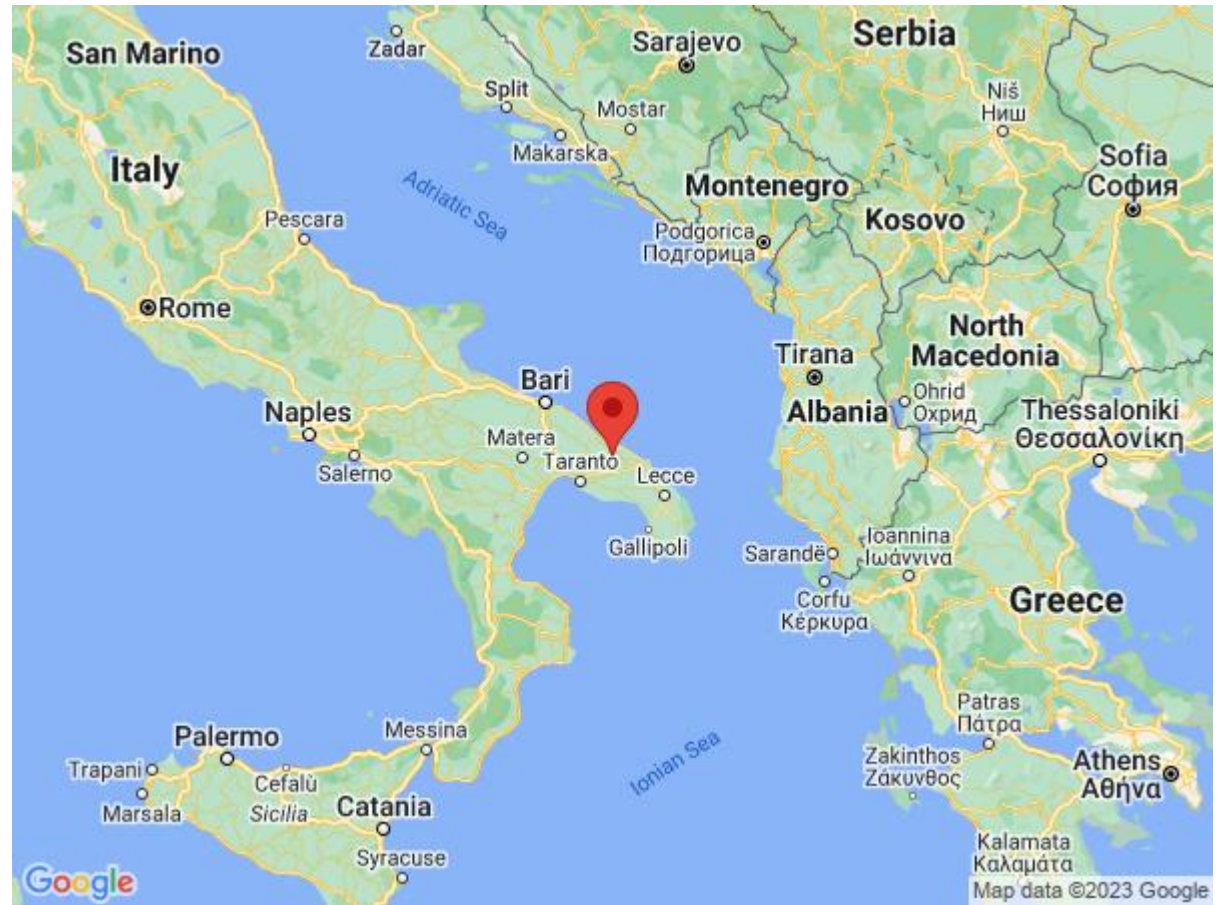

Furthermore, this villa is ideally situated to explore the rest of the region as you can easily reach some of the prettiest towns in Puglia. For example, you can drive to the idyllic Città Bianche, Locorotondo and Martina Franca in a short 30 minutes. In addition, the equally stunning town of Alberobello is only 45 minutes away by car, where you can admire the iconic trulli typical of the Puglia region.

For day trips slightly further afield head to the enchanting cities of Bari and Lecce, only 1 hour away by car from the villa. Both of which boast outstanding food, culture, architecture and friendly people. Additionally, you can get to the hidden gem of Puglia, Monopoli and the breathtaking coastal town of Polignano a Mare in 45 minutes.
