Location & Local Information

With a truly breathtaking location in the turquoise Caribbean Sea, Antigua and Barbuda is a nation made up of two sister islands and several smaller islets. Villa Fushsia's superb setting within the luxurious Tamarind Hills Resort on the island of Antigua provides guests with access to the silky white sands of two idyllic beaches, Ffryes and Darkwood. Surrounded by dense green hilltops, Ffryes Beach is a popular spot with tourists and locals alike. Here, you can spend the day snorkeling in the crystalline waters, before indulging in an excellent dinner at one of the many restaurants on Jolly Harbour Marina, located only a five-minute drive away.

Tranquil beaches are only the beginning of all that this vibrant, friendly island has to offer. Only twenty minutes away by car, the Antiguan capital of St. John's is easily accessible. Here you will find the striking white towers of St. John's Cathedral, as well as the Museum of Antigua and Barbuda, providing a fascinating look at the nation's heritage and history. Visit the harbour at St. John's over the weekend and chances are you will find yourself wandering through a lively local market.

Slightly further afield, Nelson's Dockyard National Park is one of five national parks in Antigua. Listed as a UNESCO World Heritage site, this eighteenth-century British naval dockyard is an area of great historical significance on the island, as well as a popular venue for maritime events and activities. For those who wish to experience the magic for themselves, there are plenty of sailing excursions and water-based activities available.

There are plenty of fantastic trekking trails around the island, taking in sandy beaches, rainforests, and dreamlike coastal views. For a challenging hike, put on your hiking shoes and visit Mount Obama, the highest peak in Antigua. From the summit, enjoy the panoramic views, before descending to Cades Bay for a delightfully refreshing dip in the ocean.

Don't forget to visit Shirley Heights, a restored military lookout known for its bewitching views and community feel. With a popular street party happening every Sunday evening, visitors are welcome to enjoy the music of live Caribbean steel drum bands, taste some of the local food and rum punch and take in the breathtaking sights as the sun begins to go down on the beautiful island of Antigua.
