

Villa Kremasti

Region: Rhodes Sleeps: 9

Overview

Majestic mountain views await you when you vacation in Villa Kremasti, near the northwest coast of Rhodes, a Dodecanese island in the south Aegean Sea. This ultra-modern, two-storey, detached villa has five spacious bedrooms, and can comfortably accommodate up to nine guests. Villa Kremasti would be the ideal holiday home for a large family or group of friends sharing. The villa stands in its own grounds, with a tiled terrace, and a centrepiece private swimming pool, surrounded by high walls and trellis fencing for privacy.

The property is in two parts, the large main house, and a small stand-alone studio, and is built out of local light stone, and a subtle combination of terracotta, beige, and whitewashed walls. The villa comes with private parking, complimentary air conditioning and Wi-Fi throughout, as well as soundproofing. This super, stylish, property is lovely, light, and airy, with floor-to-ceiling windows, which let in lots of natural light, and cooling mountain breezes. The interiors are minimalist chic, furnished with contemporary pieces, some funky modern art, and decorated in a tranquil palette of shades of grey and beige, with flashes of soft blue and vibrant orange highlights.

Enter the villa at ground floor level, where you will be welcomed to your holiday home of bright and breezy open plan living, with sliding doors that lead directly out onto the pool terrace. The seating area has a soft beige L-shaped sofa, a wood and glass coffee table, a flat-screen television, and a bookcase full of board games and bestsellers. The adjacent white and silver slick kitchen is fully equipped with everything you will need to cater for your holiday, including a family-size fridge freezer with a water dispenser, a built-in oven and hob, and that must-have morning coffee maker. The smart eight-seater dining set is ideal for some impressive indoor entertaining. On the ground floor is a simple single bedroom with a desk. Take the staircase to the first floor, where you will find three spacious double bedrooms, two with double beds, and one with twin beds, all with built-in wardrobes. There are three modern bathrooms, all with walk-in showers, hand basins, WCs, and bidets. The studio apartment is facing the house on the opposite side of the terrace, with a small kitchenette and a table for two, two single beds, and a bathroom, and would be perfect for your teenage children to share.

The extensive tiled terrace with seasonal flower borders, is home to a step-entry swimming pool, long enough for lengths, and lovely enough for cooling afternoon dips. The pool is surrounded by white mesh sun loungers and shady parasols. You can practice playing ping pong at the outdoor table tennis table. As dusk falls dine alfresco at the outside dining sets, from dishes freshly grilled on the Weber barbeque, and the sun sets over the mountain.

Location & Local Information

Villa Kremasti can be found in the laid-back area of lalysсос, near the northwest coast, on the beautiful Greek island of Rhodes. Rhodes is the jewel in the crown of the Dodecanese Islands, set in the Southern Aegean Sea, Greece. The villa is only four kilometres from Rhodes' Diagoras International Airport, a short ten-minute journey away. Within walking distance, there are local mini markets for daily provisions, banks and ATMs for changing money, cosy cafes for morning coffee and baklava, and traditional tavernas for some authentic Greek cooking.

The nearest beach is lalysсос, a walkable eight hundred and fifty metres from the villa, a quiet beach that slopes gently into the sea, with a few bars, sounds idyllic. The coastline is populated with some fabulous sandy beaches, offering a selection of water sports, and organised facilities, you won't have to travel far to find your favourite. Local sights that are just a short drive from the villa include Kalithea Springs, Rhodes Waterpark, Rodini Park, Diagoras Stadium, Andreas Papandreu Park, and the Acropolis of Rhodes. The area is surrounded by trails and treks or go further afield on some guided hikes around the island to discover the breadth of the indigenous flora and fauna. Rhodes really is a walker's island with almost fourteen thousand square kilometres to explore, through forests, up mountains, discovering ancient sites, and maybe stopping at a welcoming village taverna to sample the local wine, honey, and herbs, along the way.

The ancient town of Rhodes is a twenty-minute drive from the villa, and well worth a visit. The old town of Rhodes has been declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site, and as you wander the narrow lanes, old streets, and ancient fortifications you'll see why. Rhodes' history has been influenced by the Knights of St John, and Venetian and Ottoman conquests. Don't miss a visit to the Palace of the Grand Masters, the Castle of Monolithos, the Suleyamniye Mosque, the Archaeological Museum, the Museum of Modern Greek Art, and many ornate orthodox churches, and make sure you count the eleven gates as you make your way around the old town. If you can't pound the pavements, take a Segway tour, or stop for refreshment in a local taverna and sip ouzo, as you watch the world go by.

For the adventurous rent a quad bike, or join a jeep safari and take a tour of the island. All aboard a high-speed boat to lovely Lindos, or relax with a spot of fishing at Makarounas. If fishing isn't your thing, you can admire a myriad of marine creatures indoors at the Aquarium of Rhodes. And for those who really want to go further afield, get island hopping, and take the Rhodes ferry to far-flung places, including crossing continents to the cosmopolitan town of Fethiye on the Turkish Turquoise coast.
