

Casa Savina

Region: Formentera Sleeps: 6

Overview

A casual and cohesive villa based in the remarkable region of Formentera, Casa Savina is the ideal holiday home for those in need of a deeply relaxing stay. The exterior of this property is characterised by an immense and far-reaching garden area that provides an obscured view of the nearby countryside. Guests can also enjoy a series of immaculate outdoor terraces, giving them a perfect chance to kick back and relax as they learn to appreciate the stunning views that sit nearby. Therefore, this is a perfect villa for those looking to gain a more intimate look at the region's rich collection of biodiversity.

Inside, this property continues to adhere to a very simplistic theme, helping to build an extremely stylish and contemporary property for guests to enjoy. The living room hosts a considerable sand-coloured sofa, offering guests the ideal space to rest and recharge as they discuss their favourite aspects of the trip so far. Guests are also encouraged to indulge in an epic family movie night using the modern flatscreen TV found at the back of the room. Moving over to the dining area, this space hosts a pair of unique wooden tables and a collection of matching chairs. As such, guests are free to use these spaces to their full potential, using them to enjoy their daily meals as well as each other's company. The kitchen within this property is nothing short of pure perfection, showcasing a wealth of bright white cupboards as well as a vibrant tiled accent wall. As a result, guests will have access to everything they would need to craft a selection of meals that the whole family is sure to love.

Casa Savina also hosts three spectacular bedrooms, all of which adhere to their own sense of unique style. The first bedroom contains both a double bed and a single bed, making it suitable for families with children who are unable to sleep independently. The remaining two bedrooms both contain a pair of single beds, meaning that they can be used by small children or by couples who prefer to sleep separately.

Location & Local Information

Casa Savina can be found just over 10 minutes away from the centre of Formentera, giving guests the prime opportunity to explore everything that this amazing area has to offer. One of the region's finest attractions is Es Migjorn beach, which is also regarded as the area's longest beach. Teeming with soft golden sand and sapphire blue water, this is an impeccable landmark to visit if you are looking to let go of the stressors of normal life and truly learn to become more mindful of the soothing sights and scents that surround you. Once you have enjoyed a day out at the beach, be sure to take a short walk into the local town. This area is filled with native establishments, allowing guests to end the day with a delicious meal. Es Migjorn beach is situated just over 15 minutes away from the villa.

Cap de Barbaria is another deeply significant landmark that is based around 10 minutes away from Casa Savina. Measuring over 100 metres above sea level, this looming lighthouse has managed to establish itself as an iconic local phenomenon. Avid European film lovers will recognise this structure from Julio Medem's photograph in the racy film Lucia y el Sexo. Therefore, this is an unmissable sight for those who wish to observe this region's history from a much more intimate perspective. Guests must also climb to the very top of this monument, basking in the wealth of awe-inspiring views that sit below.

Together with its idyllic views and incredible cultural impact, Formentera is also recognised for its fantastic food scene. Since this area is surrounded by vast bodies of fresh water, it is often commended for its remarkable seafood industry. Peix Sec de Formentera is a local delicacy that is crafted using a variety of fresh skate that is then left to dry out on the many Sabina trees that encircle this area. As a result, guests now have the opportunity to leap out of their culinary comfort zones and enjoy a dish that is truly native to this quaint area. This dish can be found in a collection of local seafood restaurants, making it a very accessible menu option for foreign foodies.
