Location & Local Information

Can Garriga is located in Cap d'en Fort, one of Menorca's quietest regions? Nearby Binisafua beach is the biggest attraction here and features soft, fine sands and clear, shallow waters - making it popular with families with children. Dense pine forests and palm trees shelter the beach on one side and rocks and shrubs on the other, and it is an idyllic and unspoilt spot to spend your time. Just 0.3km from the centre of Cap d'en Font is Es Calo Blanco, a tiny bay with crystal turquoise waters and soft golden sands. The beach is blessedly quiet even during peak season, and although you won't find any amenities here, it is a wonderful place to sunbathe, swim and soak up the natural surroundings.

What we love

- We loved that Can Garriga was set over one single storey, making it a great choice for families with young children or for those with limited mobility
- The villa is situated in one of the quietest parts of the island - ideal for enjoying a peaceful and relaxing holiday
- The large garden with hammocks and a trampoline was a great addition for the kids
- The whole family enjoyed the villa's private pool

What you should know...

- Can Garriga is incredibly modern in design and decor, so it might not be ideal for those who prefer a more traditional-style villa
- The villa's private pool is unfenced, so parents will need to make sure that young children are well-supervised while playing in the vicinity
- Cap d'en Font is one of the quietest areas of the island, so it might be the best choice of destination for those who want to enjoy a more bustling tourist area.
