Location & Local Information

Cala en Brut is a stunning deep turquoise cove, notable for its calm waters and lack of sandy beach. The cove is surrounded by rocky cliffs and sunbathing platforms on both sides, with the water accessed by ladders - think of it as a big, natural swimming pool! This area is perfect for accomplished swimmers and divers who will enjoy jumping from the platforms and those who enjoy snorkelling. Even if you don't swim, the cove is an absolute must for a photo opportunity - it's simply stunning!

If you want to enjoy a day out on the sands, the beaches of Cala en Forcat and Cales Piques are just a short walk away, and the former capital of Ciutadella is just a ten-minute drive from the villa and has been referred to as Menorca's 'prettiest city'. Ciutadella is a great base for day trips to the local beaches and other highlights of the island and is famous for its historic harbour, street art culture and gentle buzzing nightlife. The pastel-hued streets make a refreshing change from the typical white-washed towns of the region and are dotted with little shops and delis where you can pick up some local produce to enjoy back at the villa. Oliver recommends heading down to the marina during your stay, where you'll find a variety of cafes and restaurants serving up delicious fare to suit all tastes and budgets, as well as offering spectacular views.

From the harbour, you'll be able to book boat trips to explore more of the coastline - including a full-day trip lunch and a unique swimming and snorkelling experience on a 10-metre wooden sailboat. It's worth knowing that highly-rated and affordable trips are incredibly popular, so it's worth booking early so that you don't miss out!

Lovers of history and architecture are sure to want to visit the city's 14th-century cathedral during their stay, especially as it's considered an absolute must-see for anyone visiting the city. Built atop an old mosque, the cathedral is one of the most beautiful on the island, bursting with light, decorative elements, and beautiful stained glass windows that create colourful patterns on the stone when the sun streams through. Guests should note that the entrance fee includes access to the cloisters - so be sure to hold on to your ticket once you've entered the cathedral. Admission for children under the age of 12 is free, and 'appropriate dress and behaviour' is required, as the cathedral is an active place of worship.
