Overview

Nestled in the heart of charming Courchevel 1850, Chalet Julia is a stunning traditional ski chalet, ideal for groups looking to experience laid-back luxury at its finest. This stunning chalet seamlessly blends rustic Alpine charm with modern convenience to provide guests with an unforgettable mountain experience.

Spread over four floors, Chalet Julia offers plenty of space which can accommodate up to eight guests across four beautiful bedrooms. Each bedroom is decorated in traditional Alpine style and is configured as either a double or a twin-style room and benefits from its own private en-suite bathroom.

The main living area is a gorgeous open-plan space located on the chalet's top floor, where guests can relax and unwind in front of the roaring fire and Apple-TV-enabled TV in the spacious and comfortable lounge. Large windows provide breath taking views of the surrounding mountains, while the dining area offers the perfect space for intimate dinners or lively gatherings with friends and family. A fully equipped kitchen is located beside the dining area, perfect for creating wonderful home-cooked dishes.

The lower level of the property is dedicated to rest and recreation, with several wonderful facilities, tucked away beneath the main living space. With a steamy sauna, exercise equipment, table games, and even a bar area, Chalet Julia has plenty of ways to unwind during your stay.

This level also contains a laundry room for your convenience and a spacious, dedicated ski storage room. With specialised storage facilities and heated boot warmers, you can safely store your equipment when not in use while also letting your clothes dry and warm up ahead of your next excursion.

The chalet itself is perfect for skiing enthusiasts and spectators alike, with direct access to the ski slopes nearby as well as the local village where you'll find plenty of bars, shops, and restaurants to explore.

Location & Local Information

Chalet Julia is located in the exclusive Courchevel 1850 resort, part of the Three Valleys ski area, the largest interconnected ski area in the world. Worldrenowned for its excellent skiing and snowboarding terrain, with runs suitable for all levels, from beginners to advanced, Chalet Julia is a fantastic choice for mixed-ability groups looking to enjoy a winter escape to remember.

The easiest way to get to Courchevel is by flying into Geneva or Lyon airport, both of which have good transport links to the resort. From the airport, you can arrange a shared or private transfer or hire a car to drive to Courchevel directly. Alternatively, there are regular train services from both airports to Moutiers, the nearest town to Courchevel, from where a taxi or shuttle bus will complete your journey to the resort.

Once in Courchevel, you'll find a range of activities both on and off the slopes right on your doorstep. Skiing and snowboarding are the main attractions, with the Three Valleys offering over 600km of pistes. Courchevel 1850 is particularly well-suited for beginners and intermediates, with gentle green and blue runs and excellent ski schools. For more advanced skiers, there are also plenty of challenging red and black runs, as well as adrenaline-pumping off-piste opportunities.

For those who prefer not to ski, Courchevel offers a range of other winter activities, such as ice skating, dogsledding and tobogganing. The resort boasts has a range of luxury boutiques, bars, and restaurants, as well as a cinema and a spa, providing plenty of options for non-skiers.
