Location & Local Information

Casa Capella is situated just under 15 minutes away from the centre of Felatix, a location that has managed to attract affluent tourists from far and wide. One of the most popular landmarks within this region is Bellver Castle, which is based just over an hour away from the villa. First constructed in the 14th century for the prolific King James II of Majorca, this monument is also considered to be one of the few circular castles in the entirety of Europe. During their time in this landmark, guests will have the chance to examine the walls of this vast building, uncovering its mysteries and legacy. Once you reach the top of the castle, you will also be greeted by a wealth of breathtaking views of the local town that sits below.

If you consider yourself to be an active golfer, you must visit the tremendous Vall D'or Golf Course. This expansive course is home to 18 holes, a collection of greenways, and an assortment of bunkers, making it an ideal establishment for any level of player. An added bonus of this course is the remarkable views of the sea that sit close by, adding a unique natural element to just about any game. Thus, this is an ideal activity for those who wish to indulge in a complex game of golf whilst also observing the natural beauty of this area from an entirely new perspective. Vall D'or Golf Course can be found just over 10 minutes away from Casa Capella.

For those looking to embark on a truly unconventional sightseeing tour, a trip to Drach Caves is a real treat. Reaching a remarkable depth of 25m, these caves are teeming with alluring structures that help to exemplify the enticing history of this entire area. Guests are also encouraged to embark on a short boat tour, which guides them through an expansive underground lake. Thus, this is a pivotal experience for those who are looking to discover the rich biodiversity that helps to make up this amazing area. Drach Caves are located just under half an hour away from the villa.
