Location & Local Information

Chalet Eolia sits in a quiet corner of Courchevel Le Praz, a charming and traditional village at the heart of the Courchevel ski area, allowing it to take in stunning views of the surrounding mountains from all angles.

As part of the Three Valleys, the largest ski area in the world, Chalet Eolia has over 600km of world-class pistes suitable for skiers and snowboarders of all levels on its doorstep. The village itself is a winter wonderland with plenty of outdoor activities such as cross-country skiing, snowshoeing, and dog sledding.

To get to Courchevel, you can drive directly to the chalet at your leisure, or you can fly into Geneva or Lyon airports and then take a private transfer or rent a vehicle to complete the journey. You could also take a shared transfer from the airport, however, this will likely take longer than a private transfer for just your party.

In addition to skiing, Courchevel also offers a range of après-ski activities, including a cinema, bowling alley, ice skating rink, and plenty of restaurants and bars. The village of Le Praz itself has a lovely atmosphere and a range of restaurants, cafes, and shops.

What we love

- We loved Chalet Eolia's amazing location - nothing was ever too far away!
- The daily breakfast service was simply amazing and helped us to get ready each morning
- The mountain views from Chalet Eolia were some of the best I've ever seen

What you should know...

- The Courchevel Le Praz is relatively upscale, therefore the cost of shopping and dining in the area can be quite high
- As the Courchevel resort area is quite spread out, we recommend renting a vehicle during the duration of your stay if you wish to get out and about in the wider area
- When using the wellness facilities, please ensure that children are always supervised
