

Chalet Adeline

Region: Courchevel Sleeps: 10

Overview

Nestled in a quiet corner of Courchevel 1650, Chalet Adeline is a stunning Alpine retreat that exudes luxury, comfort, and elegance. The chalet is located in a prime location, just a stone's throw away from the slopes, offering easy access to the world-class skiing and snowboarding that the region is famous for.

Spread over four levels, Chalet Adeline has plenty of space to offer and can comfortably accommodate up to ten guests across its five cosy bedrooms, each featuring an en-suite bathroom, a TV and stylish bedding. The bedrooms are spread across three floors, with the top floor hosting the magnificent master suite with a private balcony which provides sweeping views of the surrounding mountains.

The chalet's interior is a perfect blend of contemporary design and traditional alpine architecture, featuring an impressive double-height living room with floor-to-ceiling windows that flood the room with bright, natural light. The living room boasts two sets of plush sofas, a roaring fireplace, and a Sky TV, making it the perfect spot to relax after a day on the slopes.

Separate from the large living room, you'll find your dining room to be a beautiful space, which offers the perfect setting for enjoying delicious meals with family and friends. The open-plan kitchen is fully equipped with state-of-the-art appliances and a large central island, ideal for preparing meals and entertaining guests. Breakfast, however, is a hands-off affair as Chalet Adeline's attentive staff will visit each morning to prepare and serve your group a delicious breakfast to start the day right.

Chalet Adeline's features an array of luxurious amenities, including a beautiful relaxation area with a large sauna and a heated equipment storage room to ensure that all of your equipment is warm, dry, and ready to use ahead of your next outing.

Location & Local Information

Chalet Adeline is located in the heart of Courchevel 1650, one of the most exclusive ski destinations in the French Alps. As part of the world-renowned Trois Vallées ski area, Courchevel 1650 has over 600km of world-class pistes right on its doorstep.

To get your Alpine retreat started, Chalet Adeline is easily accessible by private vehicle with its own secure garage for your peace of mind. If you wish to fly into the area, your nearest airports are Geneva and Lyon, both of which are around two-and-a-half hours away by private car. If flying doesn't suit you, you can also take a direct train from Paris to Moutiers, followed by a short drive or transfer to Courchevel 1650.

Courchevel 1650 itself, also known as Courchevel Moriond, is a charming ski resort that offers a wide range of winter activities for visitors. In addition to skiing and snowboarding, visitors can also enjoy cross-country skiing, snowshoeing, and ice skating.

When not hitting the slopes, Courchevel 1650 is also home to a fantastic selection of restaurants and bars, ranging from traditional French cuisine to international dining options. And for those looking for a bit of après-ski, there are plenty of bars and nightclubs to choose from, including the famous La Folie Douce.

What we love

- The views from Chalet Adeline's balcony were nothing short of breathtaking
- Courchevel 1650 is a fantastic destination for families travelling with children thanks to the wide range of activities and facilities in the area
- Our kids loved being able to watch their own shows and movies in Chalet Adeline's home cinema

What you should know...

- Please ensure that children are always supervised when using wellness facilities like the sauna
- Chalet Adeline is a four-level building with no elevator access between floors which may not be suitable for all visitors
- As a mountain village, the area around Chalet Adeline can be steep in places, which may not be suitable for guests with mobility issues
