The walkway leads straight to the first and largest village, Monterosso al Mare, with a crystal-clear beach and traditional narrow streets to meander through.

Discover the five villages on foot and follow various exciting hiking trails for all abilities. Along the way, experience stunning scenery, spectacular sea views, and the different charms of each village. The famous route originating from the early 20th century- Via dell'Amore, 'The Path of Love'- connects the villages of Riomaggiore and Manarola. The trail is a paved, flat walking path for a peaceful, magical stroll along the clifftops with breathtaking sea views. Tradition reveals this path became a connection place for lovers from the two towns.

Alternatively, start in La Spezia and take a train ride or boat excursion to the Cinque Terre villages. Reachable within an hour from the villa, La Spezia has a beautiful combination of history and impressive scenery, including the waterfront, harbour, and the San Giorio castle, constructed in the 13th century. There is opportunity to explore further and into the popular Tuscan towns, such as Lucca and Pisa, just over an hour away from Villa Mesco.
