Set over two floors, guests will love the open-plan style of the lounge, dining area and well-equipped kitchen whilst there are two sets of doors leading to a terrace both at the front and rear of the house.

Location & Local Information

Villa Beauvoir is a short drive from the picturesque riverside town of Villeneuve-sur-Lot in the Lot-et-Garonne department and close to hilltop Pujols, a pretty village classified as one of France's 'Plus Beaux Villages'.

You can reach the heart of Villeneuve-sur-Lot's old quarter in just over 3km with its medieval buildings, bustling shops and its twice-weekly market which takes place beneath the 19th century covered hall. Admire the attractive Lot River views as you cross over the 13th century bridge and look out for the art exhibitions taking place at the historic Musée de Gajac. In the outskirts of Villeneuve-sur-Lot, close to the villa, there are practical amenities such as a large supermarket and a sports complex with tennis courts.

The perched village of Pujols is also easily reached (4km by car but even closer as the crow flies) – it's small centre won't take long to explore but it's full of charm with its historic houses, some dating back to the 16th century, and colourful summer gardens. Enjoy the glorious views of the river and countryside below before stopping off for something to eat in a village restaurant.

Other highlights nearby include the tiny riverside village of Penne-d'Agenais (11km) and its Notre-Dame de Peyragude basilica as well as the gorgeous bastide village of Monflanquin (23km), yet another of France's 'Plus Beaux Villages'. Villereal (35km) is a must on market day with its medieval market hall and atmospheric night markets usually take place on Monday evenings in the height of the summer.

Heading further east along the Lot River, Puy-l'Évêque (44km) is yet another idyllic village of the region whilst Cahors (70km), just over an hour away, is worthy of a visit with its beautiful historic centre, fine restaurants, wonderful markets and surrounding vineyards producing some of the best Malbec in the world.

In the Dordogne, the pretty village of Issigeac (48km) hosts a famous Sunday morning market whilst Bergerac, on the banks of the Dordogne River, can be easily reached in around an hour by car. Heading south instead, medieval Agen (28km) is another fantastic day out – don't miss trying Agen prunes steeped in Armagnac, after all you aren't far from the gorgeous villages and towns of the Gers; Fourcès, Larressingle and Condom are just over an hours drive away.
