

Joy Lodge

Region: Cornwall Sleeps: 1 - 8

Overview

Deep in the south of England, you'll find Cornwall. A quaint and rugged landscape that looks like it's flown straight out of a fantasy. As well as the history and culture of the area, Cornwall feels distinctly unique to the rest of the country. It has a wild, untameable spirit that draws likeminded spirits to its shores. It's dramatic coastline, lush green landscapes, rolling moorland and thunderous waves make it the first choice for free spirits who want to try their hand at surfing, rock climbing or diving.

Beyond it's ability to rouse adrenaline, Cornwall is also synonymous with cosiness. Here, you can light a fire and listen to the wind roar, the waves crash and the rain patter against the window. It's a wonderful replace to hibernate and retreat into the comfortable idyll of a snug holiday home with a book, your favourite show, indulgent treats and ending the day easing into a relaxing bath.

Joy Lodge welcomes you to Cornwall. As part of the Retallack Resort, you can enjoy the experiences and the amenities that the resort promises, including dinner at the aptly named Lookout restaurant, surf lessons to prepare you for those wild waves, access to the pool, gym and spa treatments. As a dog friendly property, you can bring your favourite furry friends along with you. You're also close by to the charming town of Padstow, where there's a great deal to do.

Ideal for a family or friend group of eight, the space is light, airy and inviting allowing you to take in the surrounding nature. The interiors themselves are brand new, added in 2021. There are some striking pieces here, including fixed antique oars and vast rope lamps, all items that highlight the maritime history and feel of Cornwall, a land that lives to serve the water. The property is ideally situated so that you can easily stroll to the pool, restaurant and neighbouring playground rendering it ideal for those with small children.

The property is ensconced by a lovely new terrace where you can enjoy the sunshine on warmer days or look out at the view all around you.

The hub of the home is its seating area where you can enjoy family time, whether you choose to sit and talk, play games, watch a film or enjoy a drink and a light meal. You can enjoy more formal dining seating or a relaxing rest on the sofas. For a different brand of cosy, head to the snug with a warm cup of cocoa or a book. With a 50 inch screen, you can also enjoy a selection of films and shows. On warm days, you can access the upper terrace and take in the idyllic surroundings.

The bedrooms are designed to be a sanctuary where you can recline after a day of exploring. There are two superking rooms and two twin rooms, as well as two bathrooms. The bedding is comprised of Egyptian cotton and plush plump pillows where you can rest. Your oak wardrobe is the ideal place to store your belongings. Before bed, wash off the day in one of the two bathrooms, and make use of the miniatures which are all paraben free. You can also get snuggled in a fluffy towel or your own Egyptian waffle dressing gown.

The exterior of the lodge is a rich chocolate brown flanked by golden fencing, creating a warm, attractive aesthetic. Get ready to make yourself at home.

Location & Local Information

Cornwall captures the senses thanks to its wild and adventurous spirit. You'll find that the young at heart and those seeking adrenaline flock here for a taste of the coast; it's weathered and dramatic landscape, surfable waves and beguiling scenery promise adventure.

Close to Padstow in Northern Cornwall, you'll find that Cornwall has the feel of its own country. The people are proud of their Cornish identity and the land they call home. Forming part of the Retallack Resort complex, you can enjoy access to a range of entertainment, including the gym, pool and spa. You can also have a meal at the Lookout restaurant and have a go at surfing. This is the ideal place to learn if you're a novice.

Beyond your front door is Cornwall inviting you to explore. Cornwall is a versatile landscape with golden beaches, charming towns and villages, vibrant seas and miles of divine coast to explore by hiking or cycling. This is part of what makes the area so exciting to visit. Regardless of your interests and passions, you can't help but be stirred.

If the great outdoors is your preference, you can enjoy a number of hikes, cycling paths, surfing opportunities and chances to scuba dive, go rock climbing or enjoy a range of water sports.

You'll likely want to check out the neighbouring town of Padstow first with its picturesque harbour and thriving gastronomical scene. If you're a fan of fresh fare, the seafood here is sublime. You can find out more about the origins of the area for free at the Padstow Museum or find out more about Padstow's local lobster population at the Lobster Hatchery. Nearby you'll find the River Camel Trail, ideal for a wander or cycle.

The variety and versatility of Cornwall is splayed before you. You may wish to spend a day at the Eden project looking at a variety of fascinating ecosystems. Drive to Land's End to see where Cornwall juts to a sharp finish and for that atmospheric end of the world feel. Newquay is a surfer's paradise with its powerful waves and also offers delicious dining opportunities. Mousehole is an enchantingly named town that is equally enchanting to explore. The capital city of Truro has plenty to do and lush views as well as a lovely cathedral. The delightfully scenic Port Isaac is a grand choice, the Minack Theatre feels like being transported into a golden past, and the evocative Tintagel Castle on a sunny day is pure magic. Get out and get exploring!

What we love

- We booked tickets in advance so we could watch a show at the Minack Theatre. I just couldn't stop saying wow. It was so beautiful and so special. A 10/10 experience for me
- My favourite room was the snug. I could escape there with my book and a cup of coffee and just melt away. It was heaven. I'm still fantasizing about it now!
- The lodge is so pretty from the outside and even more beautiful inside. Can we move in forever?
- We're big fans of The Witches film and really enjoyed dinner and a walk around the Headland hotel in Newquay. It helped bring the film to life for us
- We booked in advance at Rick Stein's so we could enjoy some famous fish and chips. It didn't disappoint!

What you should know...

- Cornwall is such a vast chunk of land and exploring by car will open everything up to you. Rentals are available if required
- There are some experiences, such as a day out at the Eden project or a show at the Minack that you might want to book in advance to avoid disappointment. They get booked up fast!
- Most people know of Truro and Newquay. But don't forget the lesser explored but beautiful treasures of Portloe, Veryan and Mousehole. Get off the beaten track and you'll be well rewarded
