

Hush Lodge

Region: Cornwall Sleeps: 2 - 8

Overview

Cornwall is famous for its ravishing brand of natural beauty. Tucked away at the bottom of England, it's a paradise and playground for those looking to enjoy the great British outdoors. The geographical versatility and variety compels many to venture here. With its plentiful crashing waves, roaming moors and lovely towns and villages, it's perfect for swashbucklers, introverts, adventurers and history buffs alike. Come to Cornwall. It may surprise you.

If surfing, rock climbing and diving aren't to your taste, you can enjoy the cosy interior of this gorgeous county. Picture sitting around roaring fires, cradling cups of cocoa, curling up reading a good book, languishing walks along the beach and enjoying indulgent spa treatments or a filling beach bag of fish and chips.

This combination of exciting, evocative adventure and comfortable luxury living makes Cornwall a must see. Hush Lodge is the perfect place to come if you desire peace, quiet, serenity and calm. The lodge forms part of the Retallack Resort which gives guests access to the pool, gym, spa (which includes access to the steam room), OverLook restaurant and surfing lessons for those who are new to the art of dancing with the waves.

Ideal for a large family or group of friends, the lodge sits across two floors and contains four bedrooms, three baths, and the piece de resistance of the property, a beguiling hot tub on your own private terrace. This is a great option if you want to celebrate a special occasion with loved ones or enjoy a peaceful escape in the south of England. A dog friendly lodge, your pets can accompany you on the adventure.

A nature lovers dream, from your lodge you can look out at Fistral Lake, watch the stars crowd the night sky, the sun rise, the rain patter against the windowsill and the birds and ducks dive and glide across the sky. It's a wonderful place to sit and reacquaint yourself with the beauty and divinity of nature.

The light and airy living rooms are adorned in pleasing colours and contain flat screen TV's where you can enjoy watching an assortment of films and sports. With one room containing a log burner, you can sit and get cosy on colder nights.

The space is designed for quality time. You can enjoy dining together in the dining area which sits eight people. Whether you decide to cook your own delights or order in pizza, spend time together in your own sanctuary. A truly delightful touch when you arrive is the delivery of your very own welcome hamper which contains an array of goodies including freshly baked cake, ground coffee, biscuits and tea.

The delightful bedrooms allow you to rest and recuperate in easy style. You're provided with only the best linen, duvets, pillows and towels. Wash off the day in your limestone wetroom located on the ground floor. You can enjoy the benefits of the powerful rainfall shower and have a restorative experience.

Whether you enjoy bird-watching, barbequing or a night-time bath, Hush Lodge is here to return you to your intended state of tranquillity.

Location & Local Information

Cornwall gives travellers the opportunity to experience something different. Catapulting those with a thirst for adventure into its stunning wilderness but also enabling cosy, comfortable nights before the fire or in your very own hot tub, it's impossible not to be pleased.

As part of a resort, you can live in your own little world if you wish. Enjoy the Lookout restaurant, try surfing and spend an indulgent evening at the spa. There's also the gym and pool and a playground for young children. Don't skip the surfing lessons available. It's far easier to get a grip of the basics here before you head to the dominating waves at Fistral Beach.

The crowning glory of Cornwall is its beguiling natural beauty which includes long expanses of sandy beaches lapped by powerful surfable waves, atmospheric and eerie moors, sublime towns and villages each with something unique to offer visitors, cultured towns with a delicious range of food, including the indulgent British classic fish and chips, and the artful remains of captivating ruins with direct links to British history and culture.

The lodge is located near Padstow in the north of Cornwall, a beautiful town famous for its seafood and food scene. You'll likely want to stop in at the Padstow Museum which is free to visit, and the Lobster Hatchery, where you can learn more about the lobster population in the area and local efforts to keep them safe.

A paradise for those who want to play, you can enjoy long walks, hikes, cycling on any of the many trails, surfing, rock climbing, scuba diving and water sports. A sea safari or trip by boat will expose you to the devastatingly gorgeous and cinematic coastline while also giving you the potential to see the marine life that call Cornwall home, including whales, dolphins and grey seals. You may even be fortunate to see a grey seal on land if visiting before summer, as it moults its winter coat for the warmer weather ahead.

Cornwall is home to many wonderfully evocative and beautiful locations including dreamy St Ives, cultured Penzance, exciting Truro and compelling Bude with its pub life and swimming opportunities. Make sure you try a Doom Bar beer! Port Isaac is renowned as a prime surfing spot as is Newquay while Tintagel on a summers day cannot be beaten with its literally legendary beauty and cliff-top castle ruins.

Mousehill's exquisite harbour is well worth a visit while Bodmin grants you access to the nearby moors. Porthcurno is stunning, Sennen Cove unusual and Holywell just perfect for a day at the beach (a sandy one at that!)

With such alluring variety, there's nothing you can't do in Cornwall.

What we love

- After a really busy year, it was such a delight to spend time at the lodge and sit by the fire, enjoy the hot tub and barbeque. I couldn't have asked for better
- It was just the perfect place to spend time together as a family. The kids could enjoy the resort, we could relax in the spa and the pool, and know that we were all safe
- We loved swimming in the outdoor salt pool in Bude! A great day out
- Sitting out on the terrace in the evening and watching the stars on a clear night was just amazing

What you should know...

- Cornwall is all about the great outdoors. Try to embrace it whatever the weather! Get involved in as many outdoor activities as you can
- Although the weather can be unpredictable, don't forget the sunscreen and sunglasses. Even on a cloudy day, you'll still need to protect yourself from the sun
- July and August are the best times of year to visit Cornwall so do factor this in when planning. They're also the most popular times! May, June and September are less crowded and usually able to offer pleasant weather
- Don't underestimate the distance between places. A car is the best way to get around
