Location & Local Information

This stunning villa is located in the village of Tugare with minimarket, bar and pizzeria a short stroll away. Approximately 10 minutes from the villa in a car is the pretty Mediterranean resort of Omis. Known for its long sandy beaches it is an ideal spot for families. 30 kms long and nestled between Split and Makarska, the Omis Riviera with its cobbled streets and architecture will appeal to everyone as it evokes an aura of bygone days. Historically this area was the home of sand harvesters and great shipbuilders but also of belligerent pirates. You cannot fail to be charmed by the unique lush landscape and quaint fishing villages.

For the adventurous traveller there is so much to do, from Kayaking, white water rafting, bungee jumping to rock climbing. Omis also offers a one of a kind adventure where you can experience zipping across the Cetina River Canyon 150 metres above ground level.

History lovers will be spoiled for choice in Omis for things to see. The Fortress Mirabella is a 13th Century fortress situated behind the Old Town. It is reached by taking the steps next to the Church of Saint Michael. Although there are a lot of steps to climb it is well worth the effort for the spectacular views. Apart from the Church of Saint Michael, there are a number of old churches and an old Franciscan Monastery housing an impressive art collection and library of ancient Turkish documents. 15th Century Fortress Starigrad is also well worth a visit. Again, it involves a climb which takes at least one hour, so not for the faint hearted. Once you have committed to the hike you will not be disappointed. Perched 303 metres above sea level it served as the primary lookout point for the entire Brac channel and the views you will enjoy will be your reward for your hard work.

Entertainment wise you may wish to try the very popular pirate evenings. The trip starts by sailing up the Cetina river enjoying breath-taking views, experience the pirates coming aboard and taking control of the vessel and all the drama that ensues. On arrival at Kastil Slanca all guests and pirates are treated to a magnificent buffet of local delicacies include peki fish, meat dishes and Fritule, wine for the adults and soft drinks for the youngsters. End the evening with dancing and pirate games before arriving back well fed, watered and ready for a good night's sleep.
