Location & Local Information

Just a 10 minute drive from Villa Arien is the sleepy port of Vinjerac. This hidden gem is at the foot of the Velebit massif and has a perfect family beach with its beautiful clear waters and pebbled shore. Nearby is a bakery and grocery store and a couple of bars serving locally sourced cuisine. Slightly further along the coast is the quieter secluded beach of Tri Drage. Its tranquil clear waters make this a perfect spot for snorkelling.

For a morning or afternoon out of the sun why not consider a drive to Modric Cave. Not far from Paklenica National Park, this stunning cave was discovered in 1985. Tours into the cave are available and you cannot fail to be astonished at how well preserved it is and be awestruck by the magnificent stalagmites and stalactites.

Paklenica National Park is well worth a visit. Due to its unique natural features, magnificent forests and extraordinary geomorphologic structures, the area was proclaimed a national park in 1949. Stretching of an area of 95 square kilometres and including the highest peaks of the Velebit Mountain, it covers the area of torrent flows of Velika Paklenica and Mala Paklenica and their distinctive canyons carved vertically into the south slopes of Velebit. This is definitely a place for the energetic. With hundreds of kilometers of hiking trails and paths you can see everything from canyons to old mills and forests to alpine flora. The park is one of the most visited climbing areas along the Dalmatian coast with climbs to suit everyone from beginners or those with children to the most experienced climber.

The historic town of Zadar is just 25 kilometres from Villa Arien. It is often described as one of the most vibrant and fascinating towns on the Adriatic coast. Steeped in history, but with a dynamic cultural life it's impossible to be bored in Zadar. The town's south western quay is always a great spot for strolling, picnicking or even jumping into the sea for a dip. Whilst on the southwestern quay, you cannot miss a visit to the celebrated Sea Organ. This is an urban installation and musical instrument that transforms the movement of the waves and the sea breezes into a series of haunting and mournful chords. Zadar's sunsets were described by Alfred Hitchcock as the most beautiful after his visit in 1964. Now is the time to really enjoy the sunset. After dark, the Sun Salutation continues the light show. 10,000 solar panels release the light they've absorbed the day to create a spectacular light show! Not to be missed.

History buffs will not be disappointed with a visit to Zadar. The town's story began with the Romans, continued with the Venetians and was capped off by the Austrians before Yugoslavia happened. From imagining the grandeur of Roman Zadar to walking along Venetian walls and gates, historic sightseeing is a fascinating way to learn so much more about this town.

Visiting Zadar is a perfect opportunity to stock up on the freshest local produce, just-caught fish and meat from the hinterlands at the City Market.

Why not take the 25 minute boat ride to Ugljan. A green and mountainous island carpeted with olive groves and dotted with small fishing ports it has become a popular get away for Zadar residents to go for the beaches, bike paths and hiking trails. The gentle easter side of the island is more populated whilst the uninhabited western side is rugged and steep. The island itself is a hive of industry with residents working at fishing, cultivating olives and grapes and tending to visitors.
