The beautifully-appointed master bedroom is on this floor, with a double bed, built-in wardrobes, an ensuite bathroom, and a private veranda, where you can enjoy a morning coffee watching the sunrise. A guest loo completes the ground floor. Take the stairs to the first floor where there are two more double bedrooms. Location & Local Information

Villa Infinity View boasts the perfect position, nestled into a hillside, with sweeping panoramic views of the crystal clear waters of the Ionian Sea, overlooking Kalami, Kouloura, and Agni Bay, on the northeast coast of the Greek island of Corfu. The villa is in a secluded spot, surrounded by scented pine forests, with Mount Pantokrator as the backdrop. Villa Infinity View is a scenic forty-five minute, thirty kilometres, drive from the international airport of Ioannis Kapodistrias, along the island's coastline.

The nearest coastal village of Kalami has a beautiful, picturesque, organised, blue flag beach, with seafront cafes, bars, and tavernas, and a few minimarts, and local stores for your holiday provisions. Kalami Beach has excellent water sports facilities, take the opportunity to scuba dive, parasail, and water ski. Next door is Kouloura Beach, with a working harbour, where you can watch the fishing boats come in, and eat freshly caught seafood by the seashore. The charming fishing village of Kassiopi is now a luxury resort, with a beautiful beach, and excellent facilities, whilst Nissaki Beach is known for its stunning views, secluded surroundings, and fun amenities. For those who want to keep fit, the island offers a whole host of activities, including hiking, mountain biking, cycling, yoga, walking tours, snorkelling and scuba diving, horse riding, water rafting, sailing, and an international golf course too.

Corfu is steeped in ancient and modern history, with ruins and temples two thousand years old, medieval fortifications, Byzantine fortresses, Venetian palaces, Greek Orthodox cathedrals, churches, monasteries, and museums galore. The UNESCO World Heritage site of Corfu old town is well worth a visit, and only forty-five minutes from the villa. The old town has thousands of years of history, Venetian architecture, French influences, and English rule. Follow the ancient winding streets to discover fortresses and palaces, Byzantine and Archaeological museums, destination squares, thirty-seven churches and a cathedral, souvenir shops, and a whole host of inviting restaurants, cafes, and bars. Visit Achilleion Palace, once the summer home of Sisi, Elizabeth, Empress of Austria.

Take a trip to Mon Repos Palace, the summer residence of the King of Greece, and the birthplace of Prince Philip. See the home made famous by Gerald Durrell in his book, My Family and Other Animals. For the twitchers, the protected Korission Lagoon near the south coast village of Agios Matteos is a must, with over a hundred and twenty bird species, and some notable butterflies, set in sand dunes, its nature's paradise. Get a taste of Corfu with an olive oil or wine tour, sample the delights, then take some home. If it's nightlife you are after, many of the beach clubs offer after sundown sets, top of the list is Pazuzu Club in Glyfada or Fabrica at Acharavi. Party until dawn at the holiday hot spot destinations of Sidari, Acharavi or Kavos, or take a gamble at the Corfu Casino. Venture a few kilometres to Benitses Bay, where you can take daily boat trips, cruise along the shore, or island hop to Paxoi and Antipaxoi, tiny islets in the Ionian Sea.
