

Casa de La Belleza

Region: Costa Blanca Sleeps: 16 - 26

Overview

Set in the midst of Benissa's hillside, Casa de la Belleza is surrounded by terraced slopes of olive groves and vineyards, offering a peaceful setting to escape and enjoy a relaxing break or a perfect getaway for cycling, yoga, work retreats, or more!

The central living area is bright and spacious with large openings, which frame views to the garden, and open out to create a fluid indoor-outdoor space. A well-equipped modern kitchen sits to one end, with plenty of surfaces to prepare food and an American-style breakfast counter to share a coffee. To the side, the room spills into an informal seating area, offering a relaxed central space, and a large dining table sits in the far corner in front of floor-to-ceiling windows that look out across the surrounding landscape. A number of other living rooms can be found around the house, creating cosy spaces with comfortable furniture to sit and read or enjoy a movie. There is also a games room with a professional pool table for a bit of amusement.

On the upper levels, guests can choose from a range of bedrooms, from large deluxe suites to well-proportioned doubles. There are five classic bedrooms, each having access to its own pleasantly finished bathrooms, whilst two of the three superior rooms enjoy private balconies that give views out to the surrounding landscape. An interconnecting suite is a perfect option for families, with a mix of bed sizes, as well as its own dressing area and en-suite bathroom. There is also an annexe detached from the main house, with a private living space and en-suite facilities that offer additional privacy for further guests. All the rooms are smartly furnished and enjoy air conditioning, ensuring that you can enjoy a comfortable temperature even during the hottest summer months.

Surrounded by rows of cypress trees and leafy pines, the extensive garden and terrace are a lovely spot to enjoy the peaceful countryside setting. The roof's substantial overhang offers a shaded patio to the side of the house, ideal for settling with a book or siesta in the shade. Whilst a handful of stylish cabana beds and sun loungers positioned around the heated pool's edge invite you to recline beneath the warmth of the sun. The large outdoor pool is perfect for splashing or lazing about under the clear blue skies.

A generous outdoor kitchen invites you to make the most of the balmy evenings, and a large dining table is sheltered beneath the wooden pergola having meals by the pool. Fire up the barbecue and enjoy dinner al fresco, or relax on one of the sofas and sip wine with your guests beneath the stars. With a tennis court, table tennis and boules area, there are numerous options to keep you entertained throughout the day, and you'll likely not want to leave the comfort of the villa and its glorious setting. For further relaxation, why not enquire about the various yoga sessions, massages, and beauty treatments on offer at Casa de la Belleza?

Location & Local Information

Nestled into the hillside of Benissa, Casa de la Belleza offers a serene environment to relax in comfort whilst being a great base to explore the surrounding area, with the nearby sights and the picturesque coastline easily accessible.

Less than a 10-minute drive away, the Old Town of Benissa offers a network of narrow streets and traditional whitewashed houses. The striking La Catedral de la Marina, one of the region's largest churches, sits in the central square, and there is a selection of local supermarkets for convenient shopping. The weekly Sunday market is a great place to browse the local produce and buy some fresh provisions to enjoy back at the villa.

The nearby coast, with its picturesque coves and rocky inlets, is less than 20 minutes away. The lovely town of Moraira plays host to a number of beaches, such as the popular L'Ampolla beach, which is a great option for families with its long golden sands and gentle shore. To the north of the town, El Portet offers a quieter option. Sheltered by the cliffs, its calm waters are crystal clear, making it perfect for swimming and snorkelling. From the beach, you can rent a kayak or paddleboard to venture out and explore the Jurassic-like cliffs. For a longer adventure, paddle around the headland to discover the hidden Cala Llebeigh, a stunning cove named after the pirates that used to smuggle sugar and tobacco to its shores. El Portet also marks the start of the trail out to the Mount of Cap D'Or, where you can walk out and see the historic Watchtower, where its strategic position boasts splendid views back across the bay.

Whilst Moraira's Old Town is a network of charming cobbled streets, the new marina features a popular sailing club, and numerous restaurants and bars line the waterfront. For some fresh fish, head to Pescador, where you can enjoy a delicious plate of the grilled catch of the day whilst watching the boats coming into the moor. A great spot to spend the evening is Terra Vian, a delightful little wine bar in the Old Town, with friendly owners and pavement seating. Sample their superb collection of wines alongside some traditional tapas and enjoy a relaxed and entertaining evening. We also recommend El Chamizo, a delicious restaurant located right on the seafront, where we dined one night with a great atmosphere and affordable prices!

Further down the coast, Cala de la Fustera and Cala Advocat also offer idyllic swimming spots, and the larger town of Calpe has a number of sandy beaches to check out. Alternatively, head to the hillside to enjoy the region's lesser-known landscape. Just a 45-minute drive brings you to the striking El Castell de Guadalest, perched upon a limestone crag high above the valley. Fortified by the Moors, the mountain village occupied a strategic defensive position, and whilst most of the structure was lost during the 1644 earthquake, partial ruins of the castle are still visible. Walk up the single cobbled street to enjoy marvellous views across to the Sierra de Serella and reservoir hundreds of feet below.
