Location & Local Information

Located between Rogoznica and Primošten, Ražanj is a small fishing village surrounded by the spectacular natural beauty of the Dalmatian coastline. The village is home to a regular local market where visitors will find fresh local produce, a selection of traditional restaurants, and a treasure trove of well-maintained beaches. The scenic pebble beach and clear, shallow waters of Cape Varoš make it the ideal choice for families, while the panoramic views of the Adriatic Sea from the historic fortress on Movar Hill will enchant hiking and biking enthusiasts.

Only ten kilometres from Villa Visa, the town of Rogoznica is famous for its serene bay and laidback Mediterranean charm. Rogoznica locals are understandably proud of their stunning beaches, which stretch along fifty kilometres of dazzling turquoise waters. The vibrant centre of the town is located on a peninsula that was once an island. Today, it is connected to the mainland by an artificial isthmus but retains its unique island feel. Surrounded by forests and dotted with traditional stone houses, the town is also well known for its picturesque port and the impressive harbour at Marina Frapa.

History enthusiasts will enjoy learning more about the cultural heritage of Rogoznica at the Church of the Assumption, while visitors to the Chapel of the Blessed Virgin Mary can admire sweeping ocean views under the shade of fragrant pine trees. Rogoznica is also home to various musical and cultural events during the summer, with restaurants serving traditional Dalmatian dishes made from fresh fish and crab, fabulous Croatian wines, locally produced olive oil, homemade cheeses and prosciutto.

Rogoznica offers visitors a seemingly endless array of gorgeous beaches to discover, with water sports such as sea kayaking and snorkelling and exciting boat tours along the coastline. Only a fifteen-minute drive from Ražanj, Šepurina Beach is shaded by pine trees and provides many family-friendly activities, including pedal boating and a floating aquapark. Meanwhile, Miline Beach is located near the centre of Rogoznica and offers crystalline waters, a beach bar and excellent seafood restaurants nearby.

An incredible sight locals and visitors love is Rogoznica's impressive saltwater lake, aptly known as Dragon's Eye. Located on the Gradina Peninsula, this oval-shaped lake is the site of a fascinating local legend, surrounded by rugged cliffs and offering visitors a magical swimming spot. For a unique day trip to discover more of Croatia's stunning natural beauty, Krka National Park is roughly an hour's drive away from Ražanj. The park features fantastic walking and cycling trails leading to majestic gorges and seven cascading waterfalls.

The narrow, labyrinthine streets of the old town of Trogir are approximately thirty minutes away from Ražanj by car. This enchanting medieval town is a UNESCO World Heritage Site near the lively city of Split. Enjoy a leisurely lunch in an atmospheric square or visit the Trogir Fruit Market by the old town bridge, where you will find fresh fruit and vegetables and excellent local produce such as honey and olive oil. A trip to Split will satisfy city lovers' cravings for the hustle and bustle, with plenty of ancient sites to explore, including the spectacular ruins of the Roman emperor Diocletian's palace.
