Location & Local Information

Casa Jordania is located just a few minutes drive away from the centre of Playa Blanca, an area that is often praised for its impeccable portfolio of landmarks as well as its vibrant atmosphere.

If you wish to explore a plethora of natural wonders from a truly different perspective, a trip to Timanfaya National Park is a real treat. The foundations of this park were first formed after a series of volitive volcanic eruptions which occurred between 1720 and 1736. As such, guests are encouraged to visit the tourist centre to learn more about these essential structures and how they have influenced the local narrative of Playa Blanca. Another interesting aspect of this park is that it is home to a divine restaurant that prepares food using the residual heat from the earth's crust. In turn, this is a perfect place to explore if you want to enjoy a delectable meal with a twist. Timanfaya National Park can be found around 20 minutes away from Casa Jordania.

Centro Commercial Rubicon Shop & Fun is a fantastic establishment to visit if you wish to pick up a range of souvenirs to show off back home. Complete with a diverse selection of quirky pop-up shows, designer retailers, and independent stores, this shopping centre offers a wide range of outlets that are sure to appease any type of guest. Once you have taken the time to explore everything that this attraction has to offer, be sure to enjoy a wonderful meal in the food court found on-site. Centro Commercial Rubicon Shop & Fun is situated just over 5 minutes away from the villa.
