

Villa Douar

Region: Marrakech Sleeps: 10

Overview

Surrounded by astounding landscaped gardens sprinkled with towering palms, centuries-old olive trees and other wonderful exotic plants, Villa Douar is the epitome of luxury contemporary holiday accommodation. It consists of three buildings next to each other, each of which is a capsule of contemporary cool. In total, Villa Douar boasts five exquisite bedroom suites as well as sensational living spaces, outstanding outdoor terraces, a fab pool, a hammam, a massage room, a clay tennis court and a gym. Designed with minimalist chic, it is so beautiful it will take your breath away. Together with a brilliant staff who will do their utmost to ensure that you experience the Moroccan holiday of your dreams, you will find it very hard to find another villa quite so wonderful.

Villa Douar is chic, effortlessly stylish and oozes luxury. Every space has been brilliantly thought through, and it's world-class amenities and friendly staff promise maximum pampering, indulgence, relaxation and rejuvenation, as well as heaps of fun. The main building sits close to the swimming pool with a large open-plan living room, a dining room, a kitchen, two phenomenal bedroom suites and a large roof terrace. Your garden views are maximised by the open walls of glass, and every element of the design has been created to work in unison with the concept of indoor, and outdoor living. The result is absolutely spectacular. Under a beautiful ceiling, two giant sumptuous sofas sit opposite each other beside the feature open fireplace. Glass doors open fully on both sides, one terrace offering an exquisite alfresco dining area and the other terrace brimming with luxury day beds and other contemporary outdoor furniture. Another indoor dining area also features a chic wooden table and matching chairs. The villa's kitchen is stunning, with polished concrete surfaces and outstanding appliances, through your chef will be the one using that. Upstairs, you will discover two wondrous bedrooms, one with a king size bed and the other with twins placed next to each other. They both offer gorgeous windows, window seats and exquisite bathrooms, again featuring polished concrete and plaster finishes and the very best fittings. The roof terrace enjoys a fabulous built-in corner seating arrangement and a contemporary sail canopy, as well as spectacular views that will entice your gaze and lift your heart.

The second building also offers two spectacular, super cool bedrooms with beds adorned with lux linens and private bathrooms. These are on the upper floor, with a kitchenette, lounge and television room downstairs. The decor is very similar to the main house, elegant, minimalist and with clean lines and a cool vibe that will encourage you to embrace the calm. The final house offers a stunning ground-floor bedroom with an in-room living space, a kitchenette, a dressing room and the most incredible indoor and outdoor bathroom. The bathroom features a sunken bath and a wall of glass that revolves and allows you to step outside to take a shower. You will certainly be taking your time here! Both of the smaller houses enjoy beautifully furnished adjoining terraces.

Villa Douar is enveloped by an immaculately landscaped garden with astonishing alfresco lounge and dining spaces where you can enjoy a tippie or two and a delicious meal as you bask in the golden hour sun. The outdoor kitchen is very impressive. You will feel the tranquillity fold around you as you relax in absolute peace and quiet. The 20m swimming pool is surrounded by luxury loungers and parasols. Amongst the palms and olive trees, you will discover a fun petanque court and the villa's vegetable garden. Guests enjoy access to a shared tennis court.

As well as enjoying a simply stunning villa that even the most discerning of guests will fully appreciate, the villa also boasts a beautiful hammam, massage room and gym. For children, there is a table tennis table and a games room. The staff at the villa includes a cook, housekeepers and a manager. Villa Douar guarantees a truly memorable holiday with luxury, serenity and beauty in abundance.

Location & Local Information

Villa Douar enjoys a peaceful, tranquil location just outside of Marrakech's Medina in the palm-scattered Palmeraie. It is a smart, attractive, sophisticated area and offers a good selection of entertainment options. It connects Casablanca to Fez. Golf enthusiasts enjoy the Golf de la Palmeraie club, which is close to the villa. An equestrian centre and camel riding are also nearby. Quad bikes and hot air balloon rides with Marrakech Balloon are also popular with guests looking for some thrilling adventure.

Marrakech is a bustling, intoxicating, colourful city of wonders that offers an inexhaustible source of surprises. It is Africa's Capital of Culture, where everything is on the move. Finding out all of its secrets would take forever, but you can visit a handful of attractions in a few days to get a taste of its noble past and its frenetic present. Colourful spices, glistening lamps, colourful carpets and leather in every shade imaginable are combined with a rich, ancient architecture to capture your heart and soul. Its souks are loud, thrilling and very exciting. You can shop for sweets, clothing, leather, spices, soap, perfume, rugs, lighting, musical instruments and much more. All prices are negotiable, and bargaining is a social art. You will discover snake charmers, storytellers and potion sellers. Dining in the Medina is an adventure and will set your tastebuds tingling. Smoke rises from barbecues which are enjoyed along with Gnawa musicians, acrobats and fortune tellers. The famous Patisserie des Princes is perfect for sweet treats and ice cream afterwards. Many of the riads boast exquisite restaurants for fine dining experiences where you will enjoy creative, spice-laced modern Moroccan menus, many of which are on rooftops with fabulous views. Your friendly staff at the riad can recommend and book tables for you. The wonderful Riad Yima Tea Room is the home and personal gallery of Hassan Hajjaj, the Andy Warhol of Marrakech and is filled with upcycled pop art. It is fun and a great place to grab a classic cup of mint tea. The Medina's labyrinth of winding lanes and alleyways is best explored with a willingness to get lost and a sense of adventure. In 1985 the Medina was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Hammams were introduced to the city by the Romans and adapted to fit Islamic ablution rituals. Visitors enjoy wonderful hammam experiences at Hammam de la Rose, the Farnatchi Spa, the deluxe Royal Mansour and many other spas.

Marrakech enjoys many stunning buildings. The Bahia Palace was built in the late 19th century and now forms the centre of the city's culture. It boasts incredible decor along with high, gilded ceilings, mosaics, stuccos, paintings, the mesmerising quarters of Bou Ahmed's favourite concubine, Lalla Zineb and an enormous landscaped garden.

Marrakech enjoys an excellent collection of museums, including Maison de la

Photographie, a three-storey riad-turned-gallery housing the vintage Moroccan photography collection of Patrick Menac'h and Marrakshi Hamid Mergani. Its rooftop cafe is one of the highest in Medina. The Musee Tiskiwin displays the history of Marrakech and the region in general. The Dar Si Said Museum is an exhibition of historic and contemporary Moroccan art, full of intricate Byzantine designs and colours. The Musee Boucharouite features stunning tapestries and another hidden rooftop cafe, while the Musee de Mouassine shows off the work of a local artist. The Music Museum is located in the Saadian quarter, built in the 16th and 17th centuries. The reception of the museum is a jewel of Arab-Andalusian architecture.

The area around Marrakech's Medina is sprinkled with magical gardens. Le Jardin Secret is one of Medina's largest and most important gardens, with a Persian garden full of tufty grasses and olive, pomegranate, fig and date trees and a second smaller garden offering exotic plants. An elaborate irrigation system weaves its way through the gardens, part of an ancient network that once distributed water from artesian wells and fed by the mountains. When fashion icon Yves St Laurent arrived in the city in 1964, he was overwhelmed by the city and its vivacity. He lived in the Jardin Majorelle with his partner, a lush garden painted with an intense shade of ultramarine blue. It is full of giant cacti, palms and bamboo groves. The Berber Museum is filled with Yves St Laurent's personal jewellery and fashion collection, and the Musee Yves St Laurent offers a stunning choreography presentation of the clothes in a dramatic black hall.

Visitors to Marrakech usually enjoy combining trips to the Medina with excursions into the mountains and its mountain villages. It is the perfect contrast to the thrillingly frantic energy of the Medina and the buzz of its museums, palaces and gardens. After a delicious Moroccan feast around Djemaa El Fna, you can trek up Northern Africa's highest peak, Mount Toubkal or enjoy a surprising experience of North African skiing at Oukaimeden. The Atlas Mountains are sprinkled with pretty villages, beautiful waterfalls and dramatic viewpoints. Imlil is a popular hub to start exploring, and the Bureau des Guides d'Imlil can arrange guides. You will enjoy unforgettable day trips, visit traditional villages, taste delicious food, and enjoy the fabulous scenery and a mesmerising mix of Berber, Arabian and European cultural influences. You will also discover some of the best golf courses in Marrakech, including the Amelkis Championship Golf Course and the Marrakech Royal Golf Club.
