What we love

- The fruit garden is such a great addition to the villa, and it is so fun to be able to go in and pick some fruit (that tastes 1000 times better than store-bought!)
- The rustic style of Casa Peix is really beautiful and feels very authentic to the Spanish landscape. The interior makes your stay that much more calming and serene
- The private pool is a true highlight of the villa; surrounded by comfortable sun loungers, terraces and gardens, it's the perfect escape from city life.

What you should know...

- The property is within walking distance to Pollença; however, this is a rural lane, and so a torch is required outside of daylight hours as there is no street lighting. Not all the lane is paved, and it is quite bumpy in some areas, particularly on approach to the property.
- There is an orchard at the property which guests can access. This is a naturally kept area of land and is not manicured.
- A car is required to enjoy the property and the area fully.
- There are two small fridges at the property that have very small freezer drawers
