With direct access to two stunning beaches, the resort is also within walking distance of plenty of secluded coves, hidden caves, and a mesmerising blowhole! Villa Lara offers guests a tranquil holiday experience away from the crowds and a treasure trove of Grenada's cultural and coastal gems to explore.

With the crystalline waters and soft white sands of two serene beaches on your doorstep, as well as water sports facilities including paddle boards, sea kayaks and snorkelling gear available at the resort, you may find yourself tempted to spend every sunny afternoon very close to home! However, for those who are keen to explore more of Grenada, the world-renowned shores of Grand Anse Beach offer a true Caribbean paradise just fifteen minutes away by car. Local scuba-diving guides near the resort offer aquatic tours and experiences, so the underwater world of Grenada is also yours to discover.

Hiking enthusiasts will be enchanted by the panoramic views of colourful St. George's and the dazzling Caribbean coast from Fort Frederick, located at the summit of Richmond Hill, approximately eight minutes away from the resort by car. Meanwhile, the trails to be explored within Grand Etang National Park are truly unforgettable, taking in lush vegetation and wildlife such as lizards, armadillos, mongoose, and even the Mona monkey, a protected monkey in Grenada. At the centre of the national park, the Grand Etang Lake is a majestic body of water located in an ancient crater and surrounded by tropical rainforests.

Only a half-hour drive away from the 473 Grenada Boutique Resort, you will find another area of outstanding natural beauty, the Annandale Waterfall and Forest Park. Home to some of the island's most breathtaking scenery, the refreshing spray of the cascading Annandale Falls is sure to leave you feeling completely rejuvenated after a morning hike in the sunshine. If you wish to continue chasing waterfalls for the rest of the day, head north past Grand Etang National Park to the Seven Sisters Falls, where rugged trekking trails will lead you to a magical mountain pool.

For something a little different, visit the Grenadian capital of St. George's, a friendly town with a rich history that sits along a beautiful bay. Here, visitors can spend the day wandering the town's colourful streets in the sunshine before strolling to the Carenage along the water's edge to watch the boats go by. St. George's is a paradise for foodies, with Creole restaurants serving delicious local delicacies such as butter-fried shrimp and decadent puddings made with Grenadian chocolate. Culinary tours depart from the capital and provide a fascinating insight into Grenada's history as an island of spices.
